HELD FOR PROBE IN DEATH OF 4 HUSBANDS

CHICAGO, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Tilly Kilmek, and her son, Joseph Kilmek, 26, were arrested early today and held pending an investigation of the illness of her husband, Joseph Kilmek, 67, reported seriously ill from a slow poison.

Police and the coroner's office immediately began an inquiry into the deaths of four of Mrs. Kilmek's former husbands.

Kilmek told the police, they said, that Mrs. Kilmek learned that he carried $1000 life insurance and then took out two additional policies. He said, according to the police, Mrs. Kilmek frequently after that would greet him with remarks to the effect that "you are pretty near dead now," and "did I not tell you you were not going to live long."

It was stated that after Kilmek became ill two dogs, household pets, died after eating scraps from the family table.

Former Chorus Girl, Chum Of Defendant, Tells Of Killing

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Peggy Caffee, former chorus girl chum of the defendant, again today was the magnet which attracted many to the trial of Mrs. Clara Phillips, charged with murdering Mrs. Albertina Tremaine Meadows with a hammer.

Poss given out for calling Mrs. Caffee to the stand yesterday failed to materialize, but the prosecution said it was "practically" certain she would be asked to testify today.

Mrs. Caffee, only known eye witness to the slaying of Mrs. Meadows, was ordered to repeat the story she told the Los Angeles county grand jury and upon which the indictment murder was based.

According to this story, she and Mrs. Phillips rode with Mrs. Meadows in the latter's automobile to a lonely spot in an outlying section where Mrs. Phillips, after accusing Mrs. Meadows of having accepted gifts from the defendant's husband, Armour L. Phillips, attacked and finally killed her with a hammer.

CHEERS AND TEARS AS TRIBUTE TO "NAVY DAY" AND ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—A tiny American flag, placed by some venturesome East Side school boy, flutters in stiffening breezes at the head of a nameless jetty on the East River. The Atlantic fleet, in gala array, rides at anchor on the North River. And between the two rivers today, with flowers and flags, parades, addresses, cheers and tears, New York observed navy day, in one celebration paying homage to the sea forces of the nation and commemorating the birthday of one of her most illustrious sons—the late Theodore Roosevelt.

Broadway was gay in tri-hued hunting and patriotic colors. Fifth Avenue, draped in hanging flags, reflected the solemnity of the occasion.

While Riverside Drive, with the soldiers' and sailors' monuments draped, and banked with wreaths, for the occasion and with the fleet in the distance, spoke the martial message of the celebration. Two places were singled out for special pilgrimages. One was a rest home on East 20th street, where Theodore Roosevelt was born, and which was opened to visitors by the Women's Roosevelt Memorial Association. The other was the grave of Roosevelt at Oyster Bay. Many visits were made to the grave throughout the day by delegations from patriotic and military organizations.

This action has again caused rumors to circulate that the formation of another Facta cabinet with the participation of the fascisti, is a possibility.

All speculations concerning the solution of the crisis agree that it will result in the advent to power of the fascisti, either alone or with Giolitti, Orlando or Salandra, in case the Facta cabinet possibility mentioned is dissipated.

Mrs. Hall, Widow Of The Slain Rector, Was In The Murder Party, Says Woman

HAVRE, MONT., October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler, rector of St. Mark's Church of the Incarnation at Havre, widely known in the west as "the bishop of all outdoors," was shot and instantly killed in his home in Havre at 1:00 o'clock this morning by Mrs. Margaret Carleton, wife of former Judge Frank Carleton of the district court of Hill county, who then committed suicide.

Mrs. Christler said that earlier in the evening upon completion of church service, she had gone to her home and found the house lighted and Mrs. Carleton inside turning up and burning the Rev. Mr. Christler's photographs.

Mrs. Carleton she said, gave no explanation and talked incoherently. The two women left the house together, Mrs. Christler going to a restaurant, where the Rev. Mr. Christler, a visiting clergyman and several men, church members, were dining. They remained at the restaurant until late, Mrs. Christler said.

Returning to the Christler home with his wife, Dr. Christler commented that he smelled smoke. Mrs. Christler declared she did not tell her husband of Mrs. Carleton's visit.

The Christlers had been in the house only a short time when Mrs. Carleton entered, according to the minister's wife. The three engaged in ordinary conversation for some time, Mrs. Christler said.

When Mrs. Carleton arose to leave the house, Dr. Christler accompanied her into the hall and closed the door. A moment later two shots rang out, according to Mrs. Christler.

The minister's wife said she opened the door and found the bodies. Mrs. Carleton's body had fallen across that of the minister.

Examination of the minister's body disclosed that a bullet had entered his right side and had pierced an artery. The bullet which caused Mrs. Carleton's death had pierced her heart.

Mrs. Carleton's husband is in Los Angeles, Mrs. Carleton went south recently. She returned to Havre a few days ago and stopped at a hotel.

The Rev. Mr. Christler was a close friend of the Carleton family. His friends declare his interest was purely in his capacity as a minister and this was sustained by Bishop Faber of Montana, who had investigated reports linking the names of the Rev. Christler and Mrs. Carleton. Bishop Faber said that the reports at that time were not based on truth.

Coroner Holland and Chief of Police Moran, who with Dr. Mackenzie and Dr. Foss were notified by telephone by Mrs. Christler following the shooting expressed the belief today that the case was one of murder and suicide.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Wilbur A. Mott, special deputy attorney general, who has taken over the inquiry into the Hall-Mills murder mystery, expected to interview a prominent church man today in an effort to corroborate statements of Mrs. Jane Gibson, eye witness of the double slaying.

Mott indicated that he intended to cause the church man's arrest unless he agrees to become a witness for the prosecution. Failure of the man, said to have been near the scene of the murder, to acquiesce in the arrest, has led him, Mott believes, to the arrest.

Mott is said to be in possession of data showing that this same man had discovered the letters of Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mott, slain church leader, to the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall who was killed with her, and that he had written to Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the clergyman's wife.

Prosecutor Mott indicated that arrests were imminent, but that he preferred to wait until he had an "iron clad" case. Persons under suspicion are being watched closely.

Recognized Two Of Party

Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall widow of the slain rector of the Protestant Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist and her brother, Henry Stevens, are the man and woman named in the sworn statement of Mrs. Jane Gibson, self-styled eye witness of the double slaying of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, on the night of September 14, last.

This announcement was not made by the authorities, but became known today through the issuance of a statement by Mrs. Hall's attorney.

CLEVELAND, O., October 27.—(By the United Press)—"I saw Mabel Champion level the revolver and shoot Thomas O'Connell, taking deliberate aim," said William Conklin, former cashier in Downings' restaurant, Play House Square, on the stand in Judge Bermon's court room today. Ostrander of Lake Co., announced today that a woman hitherto not mentioned in connection with the murder of Mrs. Hazel Burns, whose body was found buried in a shallow grave near Painesville late Wednesday, is to be questioned in connection with the case.

According to authorities the woman is reported to have heard a conversation several days ago in which a revolver and Mrs. Burns' name were mentioned.

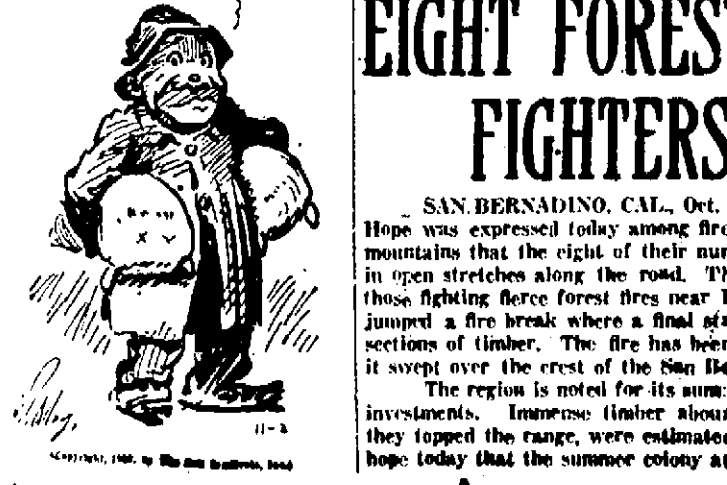

A special Lake county grand jury may be called and the facts presented to it within 24 hours, Prosecutor Ostrander has announced.

Deputy sheriffs have started a minute search of the woods where the body was found and the Burns summer home at Mentor, near the scene of the crime in an effort to find the revolver used to beat Mrs. Burns into insensibility. Prosecutor Ostrander announced after a post mortem examination of Mrs. Burns' body yesterday that she was buried alive after being beaten over the head with the butt of a gun, death being due to suffocation or strangulation.

The fire has been burning several days. Last night it swept over the crest of the San Bernardino range.

The region is noted for its summer homes and represents heavy investments. Immense timber stands, in some places the flames, as they topped the range, were estimated to be 400 feet high. There was hope today that the summer colony at Lake Arrowhead would be saved.

Not To Bare Name Of Lieutenant

CHICAGO, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The name of the second lieutenant responsible for the blunder which resulted in the shelling of the Farwell and McCormick estates at Lake Forest Wednesday, will not be made public Wednesday, General Mosley, commandant at Fort Sheridan, announced today.

According to General Mosley, the officer, in charge of a squad practicing with a one pounder, instead of firing out over Lake Michigan, trained the gun up the beach across an arm of the lake. Four shells struck the shore and, ricocheting, hurried into the Francis C. Farwell mansion. The firing was stopped by a telephone call from Mrs. J. V. Farwell. To General Mosley she expressed sympathy for the young lieutenant when informed of the investigation and said so far as she was concerned, the shelling of Lake Forest was a closed incident.

Fifty-six Neophytes provided fun and plenty for members of Vesper Grotto Thursday afternoon and evening when the fall ceremonial was held with the scene of action at the Sun theatre in the afternoon and the Auditorium in the evening. A parade by the Grotto band, candidates and Prophets, a banquet at six o'clock at the Temple and a dance at the Auditorium following the completion of the exemplification of the work were also features of this ceremonial voted by all Prophets as one of the best yet held in this city. Modest John Millard, who directed the work of conducting the candidates over the burning sands wore a broad smile last night when the work of the day had been completed with such great success.

The band, in complete uniform, followed by the 54 candidates, properly tagged and then the Prophets formed a parade at 1:30 that started from the Temple, Fourth and Chillicothe streets, and moved over the following streets. Fourth, Market, Second, Chillicothe, Seventh, John and Gallia, short stops being made at the Times office, Portsmouth Telephone Company's office and Selby factory where the band gave concerts.

The ceremonial work was produced at the Sun Theater and every prophet in the cast, excelled his former efforts. There was not the slightest hitch, the work passing off as smoothly as a new watch, the exemplification winning round after round of applause.

The candidates were amazed at the ritualistic work. They had expected nothing but a lot of fun and frolic, and they sat enthralled with the seriousness of the situation that finally wore itself into a climax—happy, of course, that made such an impression on the big class as to last every candidate a life time. The work at the Sun theater will go down as the best yet exemplified by the local grotto, which has won an enviable reputation in the rendition of the ritualistic work.

Dinner at six was served to more than 350 prophets at the Temple with the ladies of the Eastern Star at the helm. The dinner was excellent and well served and those who surrounded the festive board are a unit for the same caterers at the next ceremonial, which will likely be held in early January.

Following the dinner, the large crowd assembled at the Auditorium, where there was nothing but fun—fun for the prophets, but not so much fun for the candidates. However, there were no casualties, regardless of the fierceness of the frolicking lumps that covered around like lightning. The prophets roared as the luckless candidates traveled the burning sands and made the welkin ring with their shouts and yells. All in all, there was not a moment that went to waste, and Monarch Millard and Master of Ceremonies John Underwood have sent forth word that any candidate not receiving all that was coming to him will be accommodated at the 1923 ceremonial in January. Don't shove.

At the conclusion of the stunts, the big hall was cleared and with Bismillah's orchestra in charge the prophets, wires and sweethearts enjoyed tripping the light fantastic until the midnight hour. More than 100 couples were on the floor and the dance was an unqualified success.

Admitting the importance of the story told by Mrs. Gibson, he professed to have other information on which he could act independently of her affidavits.

Mr. Mott's last words last night, before leaving for his home in Newark, were: "The time is not quite ripe for an arrest, in my opinion."

He admitted that Mrs. Gibson's identification, generally speaking, would afford sufficient ground for an arrest, but said that under the present circumstances, it would be well to have corroborating evidence.

Mrs. Gibson, who retired from the circus ring to raise pigs, introduced herself unobtrusively into the case when Clifford Hayes, war veteran, was arrested. Keeping silent, it is set forth because of the financial influence of persons whom her story would implicate, she nevertheless went to the authorities with her story when she found Hayes falsely accused.

Brushed Aside At First

At that time, it was learned today, she was brushed aside in the excitement of the arrest. When that trail proved a blind alley, some one remembered the "pig woman" as Mrs. Gibson is known.

Detectives went to her home, for the preservation of which she has been straining every nerve to meet mortgage engagements. It was then reported that the authorities had located a woman who had been an eye witness of the double murder, but it was not until Tuesday that her name became known.

Identifies Both Parties

At that time it was learned that she had identified the woman with the murderer and had heard her cry out the murderer's name. She had met the woman some time ago at a rummage sale.

Today she told newspapermen, in a graphic account of the slaying, that she did not know the murderer at the time, but that she since had met him again in the prosecutor's office and recognized him.

It was learned that Mrs. Gibson had re-enacted for detectives her movements on the night of the murder.

country jail at Painesville, charged with first degree murder, and has been under cross examination by Lake county, he has made no admission, authorities say, that would convict him of the crime.

A dramatic incident followed the bringing of Burns into the Painesville morgue, where the body of his wife was yesterday.

Falling to the floor he cried: "No, No. I didn't do it."

This exclamation was followed by Burns kneeling beside the bier and clasping the body in his arms, while his lips moved as if in prayer.

At another period of the cross examination of Burns yesterday he replied to the inquisitors: "If you could only see into my heart you would know I am innocent, how could I face my wife in the next world if I had killed her?" The body of Mrs. Burns will be sent to Hensville for burial.

PAINESVILLE, O., October 27.—(By The United Press)—Deputy sheriffs today searched woods near here for the pistol used to beat Mrs. Hazel Burns into unconsciousness before she was placed apparently still alive in a shallow grave in a lonely ravine. Discovery of the weapon, authorities believe, will aid in forging the strongest link in the chain of evidence about the slayer, Henry Burns, husband of the dead woman, who is held in jail here on charges that he committed the murder, contended to insist today that he is innocent. That Mrs. Burns was buried alive is the belief of authorities following an autopsy which showed no bullet wounds as first reported. The wound under the left eye, thought to have been made by a bullet, was disclosed as a deep cut.

"The Unloved Wife"

They call her "The Unloved Wife." It is enough, it is better that we should know her as "The Heart-broken wife." This girl is one of many. We do not know what is in her heart. It is entirely possible that she is fearful of a man. She may even have entered matrimony, willingly, expectantly—? The important thing is, she is "unloved," all of which is another way of explaining that "The Unloved Wife," the Unsmiling! Gripping! Fascinating play comes to the Sun 2 days, beginning Monday October 30, with matinees daily for ladies only, with a complete production and an excellent cast of players. The evening performances are for everybody over sixteen. Matinee at 2:30 p. m. Ladies only.

"Peck's Bad Boy"

In hundreds of cities in this country, "Peck's Bad Boy," which is at the Sun theatre tonight and Saturday matinee and night, holds the record for attendance. There is scarcely a theatregoer in this community who cannot recall some time or other when this favorite old comedy with music, has not "stirred them up" in a local playhouse. Particularly true is this of matinee performances, for "Peck's Bad Boy" is without an equal as a play for the children.

The old favorite has not been seen in this locality for some time, and its return will be welcomed by the many people who remembered it for just enjoyable evenings. It has been brightened and refreshed with the addition of new songs and dances and the interpreting company is the best which has ever been congregated for the play. Children's matinee Saturday, 20 cents.

Abandon

Mingo Strike

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 27.—(By The Associated Press)—District Secretary Fred Mooney of the United Mine Workers, awaited further instructions today from national officers who announced abandonment of the strike in Mingo county last night.

Since July, 1920, organized miners have been on strike in the Mingo fields the scene of many fatal encounters. R. D. White, international organizer, distributed word of the cessation. No details were given but Mooney said he presumed it was because of martial law and opposition of state officials, "which made it impossible for us to win there."

Agreements Being Reached In British Election Districts

LONDON, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The latest development in the electoral campaign is an understanding reported to have been reached in some districts under which the conservatives have agreed not to oppose coalition liberal candidates under the Lloyd George banner who will pledge themselves to give their general support to Prime Minister Donnan Law.

Referring to these deals, the Times says, that "the coalition liberal government is in danger of breaking in two, and attributes this condition to lack of a decisive lead by Lloyd George."

The newspaper understands that Lloyd George has been urged to give his party definite guidance in the speech he is to deliver next Saturday at Glasgow.

Lloyd George made no reference to the question of these new inter-party deals in a message which he sent to the Daily Mirror today.

In this message he said he had a "profound conviction" is shared by the most experienced and distinguished leaders in the conservative party that the manifold difficulties ahead of the country can best be solved by those who put the interest of the country above party consideration.

The course I intend to take will be dictated by no personal considerations and in no factious spirit. I shall continue doing my best to serve the country, the message said.

SOCIETY

Honoring Miss Kathleen Hanley, who is leaving soon for her home in Lima, Ohio, and Miss Pauline Oakes, who leaves November 15th for an extended visit in Florida, the girls of the Times and Sun offices entertained with an attractive dinner party last evening at the "Mary Louise" tearoom on Gallia street.

Miss Margaret Anne Simpson, of Lima, who is succeeding Miss Hanley as society editor of the Morning Sun, was also a welcome guest at the dinner.

Pink and blue shaded lights adorned the table, which was attractively appointed. A four course dinner was served and places marked for: Miss Ethel Oakes, Miss Pauline Oakes, Miss Nell Meisel, Miss Fannie Druggan, Miss Lillian Mitchell, Miss Margaret Simpson, Miss Violet Bowen, Miss Eva McCaffrey, Miss Louise Thoroughman, Miss Catherine Elliott, Miss Kathleen Hanley and Miss Mary Nodler.

The home of Mrs. M. L. Deatley, Sixth street, was the scene of a pretty affair last night, when Mrs. Deatley entertained with an enjoyable Halloween masque. Grinning jack-o-lanterns, black cats and other suggestions of the season were used in decorating the rooms.

All kinds of games, contests and stunts were provided for the entertainment of the guests, and at a late hour an appetizing refreshment course was served.

Guests for the evening included: Misses Ella Patrick, Fannie Warnock, Elsie Töller, Zella Crabtree, Alma Durendek, Catherine Crawford, Margaret Griffin, Julia Jackson, Beatrice Hackworth, Leona Brown, Ella Hieneman, Marian Ray-Della Copas, Estelle Deatley.

Misses, Merrill Hughes, Raymond Patrick, Edward Barlow, Eugene Jackson, William Lewon, Ernest Crabtree, Gordon Spickard, Harold Doerr, Harry Farmer, Raymond Doerr, George Tagg, William Tagg, Arthur Pollock and Clarence Bailey.

Spooks, goblins, ghosts and witches reigned supreme at the Halloween party given in the gym of the United Brethren church last evening by the two girls' classes taught by Miss Minnie Chubot and Mrs. C. P. Knost. Their guests for the evening were the two boys' classes taught by Walter McCarthy and Mrs. A. W. Whitestone. There were eighty present, all coming enmasque, their fancy and ridiculous costumes causing much merriment. The gym was dimly lighted and beautifully decorated in keeping with the season, cornstalks, pumpkins, black cats and yellow paper being used to advantage. The evening was spent in playing games and at nine o'clock Halloween refreshments were served.

War Veterans Hear Prominent Speakers

Congressman C. C. Kearns, Hon. Ralph D. Carroll of Cleveland, and Colonel B. Garver, superintendent of the S. and S. O. Home at Xenia were the main speakers at an informal reception and social meeting held in the public library basement last evening by Peerless Camp Spanish War Veterans.

Mrs. Harry W. Miller, J. J. Davidson, F. B. Winter, W. H. Harsha, Charles Noel, and George W. Shepard and Past Commander Andrew Foster were other speakers. All were honor guests as were David Scott, Harry Dunham, and Harry Miller.

Commander H. W. Stathiot presided.

Congressman Kearns in his address dealt with the history of the soldiery of America and with the manner in which the Spanish American War had cemented the country together after the Civil War. Mr. Kearns paid a splendid tribute to the Grand Army of the Republic and to Commander J. J. Davidson of Bailey Post. "No better army ever trod the earth," he said, "than the soldiers of '91-'95."

Mr. Carroll, former adjutant of the U. S. W. V. in his address, spoke of the manner in which the Spanish War Veterans were fighting the Red Flag and its associates, and of the hospitality of the people of Portsmouth during the State Encampment the Spanish War Veterans held here last June.

Col. Garver, in his address, thanked the local camp for the piano which they presented to the Home at Xenia if which he is superintendent. There are now six hundred children in the home, he said, and it takes 22 cots to house them.

The Ladies Auxiliary served a delightful lunch, composed of escalloped oysters, potato salad, baked beans, celery, pickles, sandwiches, ice cream cake and coffee.

There are only 30 stars known to be within 100,000,000 miles of the earth.

Reasons A-Plenty For Discriminating In Favor Of Kline's Apparel

It has always been our pride that fashions sponsored by this store of individualized shops, are invariably preferred by the well-gowned woman and miss. But that KLINE'S prices are reasonable when quality and style is considered, is a thing now realized and the majority of our clientele know, that every dollar spent here, brings the maximum of real satisfaction.

Every business decides for itself the quality of merchandise it will sell. Quality goes deeper than the so-called surface quality. It applies to every line in merchandise.

KLINE'S believe that satisfactory wear which begets confidence and insures continued patronage, is based on the strict observance of dependable quality, style and originality.

Day-Time Dresses $12.50 Upward

A splendid presentation, offering unusually wide choice — and unusually good values.

Tailored Suits $25.00 Upward

True to Kline's ideals of style and quality, priced especially low to compel the thrifty buyer's attention.

Strictly tailored models, as well as fur trimmed, without an exception the best values of the season.

ONE CAN SCARCELY think of a new fashion which is not represented in this showing — new drapes, new side flares, new long-line ideas, new sleeves — in short, a wonderfully satisfactory collection.

Jacquette Coats

The jaunty short coat, the clearest mode to appear in years. These stunning "Jacquettes" as the French call them, have such a saucy, youthful air, some self trimmed, others fur trimmed and considering their smartness, you will admit they are reasonably priced. See them in our window.

MATERIALS — Crepe satin, Canton crepe, crepe-back satin, Serpentine crepe, Crepe Reace, Pin-seal twill, point twill, and wool canton crepe.

Coats and Wraps

STYLES REPRESENT the final word — the blouse-back coat with graceful side draping in front, the variations of the all-around Balcan Blouse Idea the start side-draped straight-line coat, and newer versions of the Cape-back idea.

Plain coats, as well as coats trimmed in furs and also utility coats are represented well in this collection and most easily priced.

Smart Wool Skirts

There's nothing like having a smart wool skirt in your wardrobe, and with a good looking skirt ready to slip on, you'll never be at a loss as to what you'll wear to business, down shopping, traveling or on a day's outing.

Brown and tan zig zag stripes are very fashionable, so are Roman colorings in the primula cloths and wool eponges.

Exquisite Millinery

Exquisite millinery creations for afternoon dress and evening occasions. Fashion's most richest fabrics and most adorable colors are shown, at prices ranging from $3 and up.

Blouses

The contrasting idea of the season has brought the blouse into prominence, and you'll want several of them to wear with separate skirts and suits.

Brilliantly bordered blouses, braided over-blouses, tailored blouses of crepe de chine, and last, but not least, the new "JACQUETTE" blouses, all are stunning and reasonably priced.

Sweaters

A bit late for golf perhaps, but just right for walking and other outdoor pastimes. The brushed wool effects, especially in trimming designs, continue in popularity. The very newest are Egyptian motif slip-over designs.

Scarf and Hat Sets

Easy to don and no burden to wear. Light in weight, downy soft in texture, voguish and chic are scarf-and-hat-sets of brushed wool of fantazzling color combinations. Becoming to the very young and all who retain the spirit of youth.

Gloves

Finger tips can be sure that they are touching the right notes of fashion when they are dressed in the new fall gloves we are showing.

The strapped wrist or gauntlet models are made of excellent quality French kid in the most favored colors of beaver, tan, black and white.

Neckwear

There are many fascinating effects which appear in the fall neckwear. And the note of taste and refinement that one of these exquisite pieces can add to a costume is unmistakable.

If you will but take note of the reasonableness in pricing, you'll be enthralled in making your assortment.

Silk Hosiery

By day and by night the new hosiery for Fall has but a single thought. It tries to be the smartest complement to the new Fall outfit. And when there are such enticing colors as silver, mist, golden, pleasant or moiré, which is very like mahogany, you can be sure that it is successful, and the prices, well, you'll be surprised how low.

Silk Lingerie

When one is practical-minded and feminine and a lover of beautiful things, it is very satisfying to find such dainty silk underthings we are showing. There are step-ins with scalloped edges, costume slips that show honors with Shad-ows proof petticoats and all are very reasonable.

Corsets

Every woman wants to have that certain, well-groomed look which only the correct corset can give, and corsets that secure the slender silhouette with comfort and without great expense are correct corsets. That is the kind you'll be fitted with if you come to this department, and our Miss Laubier in charge will outfit herself to please you.

Hand Bags

Handbags stamped with fashion carry a smart message, and if appearances count they do. For when legs are shaped like well-filled cucumbers and are made of daintiness, chiffon velvet and varied leathers, with straps that are different, most anything smart could be carried with them, and they are very reasonably priced.

Wool Hosiery

Women have found wool hose far too satisfactory and comfortable to let them go out of style. So every fall sees new versions of an old story. And this season it's fancy ribbed styles, grey with green ribs, brown with tan and other pretty combinations and unadorned checking. A very excellent quality is priced at $2.50.

Thompson Declares He Never Owned Share Of Steel Stock

BRIDGEPORT, O., October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—Answering charges of A. V. Donahy, Democratic candidate for governor, that he was a heavy owner of coal and steel stocks, Carmi A. Thompson, his Republican opponent, in a speech here today reiterated his statement made at Paulding, Ohio, during his primary campaign that he "never owned a share of steel stock" and never "directly or indirectly owned an interest in a coal property."

Early this week in a speech at Napoleon, Donahy declared Thompson was attempting to deceive the voters when he declared he never owned a share of coal or steel stock.

In his speech today, Mr. Thompson declared, "the only association I ever had with the coal mining business was when as an associate of my father, we broke the coal down with our picks and brought it out to the light of day as coal miners do so much per ton."

"In later years, I have become interested in the business of mining iron ore and I am interested in that business now. He says that at the time I made that statement at Paulding, I was a member of the Tod-Stamboth Company, of Cleveland, chairman of the Marting Iron and Steel Company, of Ironton, and a director of the Ironton Solvay Coal and Coke Company. If my opponent was more familiar with the Iron and Steel business he would know that the Tod-Stamboth Company is an ore mining company and not a steel producing company. He would also know that the Marting Iron and Steel Company is a steel company only in name and never in its existence produced a bar of steel."

"Ironton is my home town. The Marting Company is a merchant furniture company that makes furniture and sells it to foundries. If my opponent had cared to look into facts he would know that the Solvay Company makes coke and does not own or have any interest in any coal mine, but is compelled to buy its coal in the open market."

BOOM OHIO JUDGES TO SUCCEED JUSTICE DAY

WASHINGTON, October 27.—(By the United Press)—Strong pressure is being brought to have President Harding appoint another Ohioan to succeed Wm. K. Day who resigned as associate justice of the supreme court to take up his duties as umpire in the settlement of war claims with Germany. Scores of messages are pouring into the White House urging that the honor of filling Day's place be given to a Buckeye. Simultaneously enthusiastic booms are under way for Judge John W. Peck, of Cincinnati, the United States district judge for Southern Ohio, and Judge Maurice Donahy, of Columbus, United States circuit judge for the sixth district. Friends of Judge Donahy are particularly active. Both Peck and Donahy are Democrats, and therefore are eligible for the appointment which will undoubtedly go to a Democrat because all except two of the present members of the supreme court are Republicans.

Dear Dolly:—We have a married woman living in our neighborhood who is always causing trouble between men and their wives and boasts of a certain married man paying her street car fare when his wife has to work to help at home, and says she doesn't care how many homes she breaks up, just so she gets the money and fine clothes, and it is not only my husband, but I have seen her with a number of men. What do you think of such a woman?

TIMES READER.
I read somewhere that a woman who would let another woman steal the affections of her husband, was considered mentally deficient. How about you? The woman you have in mind must be "some flapper" if she can vamp every man in sight. Why don't you ask her how she does it?

DEAR DOLLY.—I am a stranger here, so will you let me know if a party can rent a Hallowe'en costume here, and where.

STRANGER.
I don't know of any one who rents Hallowe'en costumes.

Oak Hill, Ohio.—Dear Dolly:—We are two girls of sixteen and have been keeping company with two boys for some time. Dolly we love these boys and they love us. Do you think it any harm for us to go with them if some of our family goes with us?

BLUE EYES AND BROWN EYES.
It is all right to go with the boys if you take your parents or some member of the family with you.

MISS DOLLY WISE.—As you have helped so many out in answering their questions, I will thank you so much to answer these few for me. Dolly, my husband is very bad to drink. Now, Dolly, I would be so glad if you could tell me something I could do to turn him against whiskey or give me the name of something I could put in his liquor to turn him against it. And Dolly, when should a man present the bride's ring, before or after the ceremony?

A WORRIED WIFE.
Try this on him and see how it works: Five grains of sulphate of iron, ten grains of magnesia, one dram of spirits of nutmeg. Mix and dissolve in a half pint of lukewarm water. Let it stand until settled which will be in two or three days. This may be given in teaspoonful doses two or three times a day. It is perfectly harmless and is supposed to stop the craving for drink.

DEAR MISS DOLLY.—I will have to call on you for advice. I am a bachelor and working in a store. There is a young lady who comes to the store to buy and the other day I laid my hand gently on her shoulder. She seemed to get mad, but only for a minute. Now, Dolly, I want you to tell me if I did anything wrong. You know girls talk freely to each other. Dolly, should I apologize or just let it go and say nothing about it?

TIMES READER.
You didn't do anything so terribly wrong, but you certainly did forget yourself for the time being. You might have lost the friendship of the girl and also a good customer. If you think it necessary to apologize, do so by all means, but if the girl ignored your actions then and since, don't say anything more about it. Take my advice and keep your hands to yourself in the future.

DEAR MISS WISE.—I am writing to you for some advice. I am a girl of 18 and am going with a boy of 24. Dolly, I am crazy about this boy, and he says he likes me, but I do not believe he does. For awhile he did not go with anyone else but me, and now he is going with another girl. I tried to act independent and did not go with him for awhile. He tried to make up, but I wouldn't do it. We lived in the same town but I am working here now and he asked me to write to him. While we were going together he went with a girl that he had gone with about five years and he bought her presents all the time. I went with him a year and he never gave me a thing. Now, Dolly, do you think he loves me, or is he just trying to make a fool of me? And Dolly would you write to him?

BLUE EYES.
Since you are crazy about the man, and he seems interested in you, I think it would be perfectly all right to correspond with him. Some girls would not accept presents from men, and maybe he was afraid to offer you anything. Others, who don't care what they do, will ask their men friends to buy things for them, and some of them are easy enough to do it.

Practical and Pretty

The cloth coat and the practical suit come in a number of attractive forms this season. They are embellished with fur, the long or short-haired variety being equally good, and frequently embroidery in conventional patterns livens up dark, winter fabrics.

Attractive in every detail and conceded to be one of the prettiest parties of the fall season, was the informal bridge given this afternoon by the Misses Vere and Margaret Crawford at their home, 1903 Hurlingham street.

The home which is very handsome in its furnishings, presented an attractive appearance with a floral setting of pink and white chrysanthemums. Nine tables were attractively arranged for cards, and two-thirty found a body of handsomely gowned maids and maids seated for an absorbing game of bridge, which continued with unabated interest until five o'clock, when an elegant refreshment course was served and prizes awarded to the successful contestants.

Mrs. Morton Shumway and Miss Mary Frances Crawford assisted the Misses Crawford in entertaining and serving their guests.

A delightful birthday party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sexton, 2124 Vinton avenue, in honor of the twenty-first birthday anniversary of Miss Edna Smith. Music and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served to the Misses Melba Bisham, Janie Meadows, Lulu Kinder, Grace Egan, Hazel Thompson, Jessie and Claude Stumm, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kinder, Robert Hase, and Edward Lucan, Harvey and Ernest Kehley, Johnnie Robinson and Samuel Latz.

Miss Kate Frantz has returned from a visit with relatives in Ironton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nodder and son Robbie motored to Columbus yesterday morning for a week-end visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip D. Hobstetter of 1630 Sixth street will motor to Ashland, Ky., Saturday for a week-end visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. George Teist of Columbus is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Uhl, of Fourth street.

Coleman Grimes and Jim Ruggles are entertaining with a Hallowe'en party Saturday night at "Locust Point," near Wheelersburg.

Franco-American Coffee

THE ARTISTIC BLEND

MANY people say coffee is all alike. But they do not know how different coffee can be when artistic principles are applied to its blending. Franco-American is blended as an artist blends his color. It is a real achievement—a new note in making coffee taste better. That is why nearly everybody prefers it. Try it! It is the only way to know how much more you might enjoy coffee.

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

WAY to Mars went the Twins to hunt for Mother Goose's lost broom. Mars is a star, a big red one, and you can see it most any night when the moon isn't too bright, or the clouds too thick, or the air too foggy. "Well—that's where the Twins went."

The first person they saw was a square man who stared at them in a most unamusing way. "Hello!" called Nick. "Is this Mars?"

"Yes," answered the square man in a jerky voice.

"Well, we're hunting for Mother Goose's broom," Nick told him. "Did you see it?"

"Once," answered the square man stiffly.

"Was it lately?" asked Nancy eagerly.

"Yes," answered the man. "Only about a hundred years ago. She swept a cobweb off my left eye-brow. I wish she would come back. There's another cobweb on my right eye-brow and one, I fear, in each of my ears. I can't hear as well as I did a thousand years ago."

"Goodness alive!" gasped Nick. "A thousand years!"

"Gracious!" exclaimed Nancy. "Are you as old as that?"

"Older!" said the square man only stone now. When I was two million I'll turn to iron."

"And what will you do when you're three million?" asked Nick.

"I forgot," said the man. "I'll have to ask somebody. Perhaps I'll just dry up and blow away."

"This is a queer place," declared Nancy. "Is everybody like you, poor thing?"

"No," said the square man. "We're all different."

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES

"If you don't get away from here I'll give you a good licking," said Jack. The little strange boy was afraid and he ran away as fast as he could. Jack then turned back to his job of digging.

Flip came running back to watch Jack for a moment. He found his master hard at work. The dog wanted to play, but Jack had no time to waste. So Flip again turned to chasing sparrows over the hills.

Suddenly Jack heard a commotion behind him. He turned and found an officer watching him. "Say, young fellow," said the officer, "what are you mean by digging up this field?" Continued.

Editor of Times:

As a reader of your good paper I saw where you were talking of the so-called Harding prosperity and income. I see where you expected the working people would join with you in the hope that the Cunningham family would not starve. I as a working man hope they will not starve. I am not old enough to vote but when I do I will vote for men who humble themselves as our Lord did. I will belong to the party you represent.

Well, hoping the Weldner and Cunningham families will not see the "wolf at the door," and that we get men like Doubleday at charge of our government. I shall remain ready to help all people who find the wolf has got them through Hardingized incomes.

Court House

Wife Demands Damages

Mrs. Ellen Crickberger, 542 Sixth street, is demanding $10,000 damages from Martha Yahrus, 637 Sixth street, employed at The Union Globe company, for alleged alienation of the affections of her husband, John Crickberger, N. and W. shop employee, in a suit instituted in Common Pleas court Friday.

In her petition filed through Attorney B. F. Kieble the plaintiff recites that on August 7, 1912, she was married to one John W. Crickberger, who, she says, is still her husband and with whom she claims to have resided and lived happily as man and wife until the things she complains of occurred. The wife says that the husband supports her and their child, now nine years, old treated them kindly and was a good and dutiful husband until about the first day of January, 1922, when she alleges the defendant appeared upon the scene, and from that date continuously to the present time, charges that the "other woman" has wickedly, maliciously, intending to win the affection and love of Crickberger from her and appropriate the same to herself.

The wife further charges that the defendant has wrongfully and purposefully made appointments with Crickberger from her and appropriate the same to herself. The wife charges that the defendant has wrongfully and purposefully induced him to take her rides in his auto, expend his money on her in divers ways for her entertainment, called him over the telephone and conversed with him in an effort to carry out her purpose and designs. She writes him letters, pretended to love him and in a multiplicity of ways attracted his attention and directed his associations and affections from his wife, and hence, the plaintiff charges.

The wife says that unless restrained by an order of the court the defendant will continue to do the things complained of to the great and irreparable injury and damage, and a notice was served on the defendant that an application for a temporary restraining order will be presented to Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday morning.

Ordered to Pay Alimony

John Middaugh, Sciotoville, was ordered by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Friday to pay his wife, Nora Middaugh the sum of $5 a week pending the final hearing of her suit for divorce and alimony instituted Thursday.

Alleges Cruelty

Alleging cruelty and declaring that the defendant amuses herself by smashing and destroying furniture in their home, Charles F. Monroe, 220 Madison street, bell-ringer employed at the B. and O. shops seeks a divorce from Charlotte Monroe, 531 Fifth street, in an action filed in Common Pleas court Friday.

"They were married last March and in his petition Monroe says that during all the time he has lived with the defendant she has constantly and continuously abused him and on occasions has threatened his life and besides breaking up their furniture declares that she kicks the panels out of the doors in the house, knocks mantels off gas fixtures, hides his clothes and constantly keeps the neighbors awake with her loud noise and misconduct. Furthermore the plaintiff claims, he has borne with the defendant's acts of cruelty and misconduct until he has been compelled to seek a new home for himself and his children by a former marriage and asserts he cannot possibly live with the defendant any longer.

Lyons Gets Parole

Thomas Lyons, colored, sent to jail for non-payment of a $200 fine assessed against him on a liquor charge, after spending 22 days at Hotel Hickey, was released from custody Friday when County Commissioners granted his application for parole on condition that he make a substantial payment upon the fine and pay the defendant in monthly installments.

Dog Tax Sale Declines

There has been a sharp decline in the sale of dog tags in Scioto County this year as compared to 1921, according to the records in the auditor's office which disclosed that 3690 dog licenses were disposed of by Auditor Coburn last year as compared to 2771 this year, a decrease of almost a thousand, or to be exact 920.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

The bread earned by the sweat of the brow is twice-blessed bread and it is far sweeter than the tasteless loaf of idleness.

Happy the innocent whose thoughts are free from anguish as they are from faults—thus wisely, carelessly, innocently gay.

We mete out to ourselves many needless and lasting heartaches by letting pride instead of love have the rule over us.

Oh, grant me, heaven, a middle state. Neither too humble nor too great. More than enough for nature's ends. With something left to treat my friends.

The law of human helplessness asks each man so to carry himself as to bless and not blight men, to make and not mar them.

The close observation of little things is one of the main secrets of success in business, in art, in science and in every pursuit of life.

There is a perpetual spring—perpetual youth—no joint-benumbing cold, nor scorching heat, famine nor age have any being there.

There is no real good to self that does not involve good to others; no building of fine character that does not in some way make for the upbuilding of others.

One of the highest mountains in Germany has been successfully ascended by an airplane, which landed on a small plateau 50 yards from the actual summit.

IN OHIO'S POLITICAL ARENA

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—D. K. Hempstead, treasurer of the National Democratic Committee with headquarters in Washington, a visitor at Democratic State Headquarters here today, expressed "satisfaction" with the congressional political situation in the various states and "delighted" with the outlook in Ohio.

"We have a first class ticket all the way through in Ohio, and success is assured," he said.

"The present Republican Congress has played the country false," he continued, "it has not represented the Republican party or any other political party. It is slated to go."

Donahy Scores Thompson's Campaign

WAPAKONETA O. Oct. 26.—Speaking last night in his campaign for Governor, A. V. Donahy, Democratic candidate, said he is again having to contend with the same character of campaign by his opponent, C. A. Thompson, as was conducted 2 years ago by Gov. Davis—promise of economy, more business in government and lower taxes.

Mr. Donahy belittled an alleged assertion by Mr. Thompson, that if elected Thompson would reduce state taxes by $1,500,000. "How is he going to do it," Mr. Donahy asked. "If a Republican general assembly is returned."

Donahy said that back in 1918, the last year state taxes were levied by a Democratic legislature, the total state taxes collected from the 88 counties was only $3,033,070.13, compared with a total collected under the present Republican administration of $17,075,754.97, and this is not including over $20,000,000 left in the counties.

Davis Points Out Accomplishments
NEW LEXINGTON, O., Oct. 27.—Accomplishments of his administration as chief executive will warrant "a substantial and immediate reduction of taxation," at the end of the present regime, Governor Davis declared in an address here last night which closed his first day of speaking in the present campaign. The Governor declared that administration of the state under him had been economical and denounced what he called the extravagance of the Cox administration.

A condition in the affairs of the state that will definitely warrant a substantial, immediate reduction of taxation will be the heritage the present state administration will transmit to the people at the end "of my term of office," Governor Davis declared.

Economy measures, the Governor said, had resulted in a growing general fund the ability to take from the treasury fund $7,700,000 to complete payment of the state soldier bonus. The end of the year, the Governor declared, approximately $18,000,000 would be in the fund—$10,000,000 more than it had ever contained previously.

"This money," the Governor concluded, "must be used for the direct benefit of the taxpayer of Ohio by enactment of law at the earliest opportunity that will reduce taxes in the state. Continuance of our policies will continue the saving of funds. The Democratic candidates would return to the deficit policy of our predecessors."

Morrow Charges Conspiracy

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—In summing up a comparison of the 10 months of the Harding administration, Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky in an address last night declared that the Republicans have put courage back in the hearts of our land, instilled hope in the hearts of American people and set the feet of business, trade and commerce on the open road of achieving normalcy.

He charged that the Democratic party leaders and the press are deliberately and maliciously engaging in a gigantic conspiracy to deceive the American people by a propaganda that the present administration at Washington is a do nothing one.

"The Republican party recognizes the challenge and is happy to accept it," he said. "Before the end of the campaign the people will have learned the facts to realize that the party which they placed in power two years ago by a seven and a half million majority has made good the faith of the voters."

He then enumerated bills passed by Congress and declared that the passing of an old fashioned Republican protective tariff, safeguarding the accomplishments of the administration.

A. Thompson, his Republican opponent in a speech here last night.

"The Democratic candidate in his efforts to further mislead and deceive the voters of Ohio," is making the statement that the Republican administration in the year 1922 has expended $18,000,000 more than was expended by Governor Cox in 1920," Mr. Thompson said.

"Now it is self-evident, that in order to secure these figures, there had to be a comparative examination of the auditor's records for the fiscal years of 1920 and 1922; and an examination of these records does disclose that there was $18,000,000 in round numbers more money expended in the year 1922 than was expended in the year 1920.

"If Mr. Donahy has any intention of being fair, frank and candid with the voters of Ohio, why did he not go further and tell the people, because the auditor's records so disclose, that of this $18,000,000 about which expenditure Mr. Donahy complains, $10,000,000 of it in round numbers, was expended for construction of new highways and was made available during the last Democratic administration."

Mr. Thompson also pointed out that $5,000,000 of this money in round numbers, was received by the state as trustee for use in common schools of the state, adding, "why does he not tell that the money had been turned back to common school districts for whom it was collected and to whom it belonged."

"These two items alone make up $15,000,000 that Mr. Donahy would have you believe had been misappropriated and wasted by the present Republican administration."

Fess Attacks League
NAPOLEON, O., Oct. 27.—Refusal of President Wilson to comply with demands of Congress in declaring "an end to the war" and his insistence on adoption of his personal scheme "the League of Nations," are accountable for the delay in early readjustment and stabilization of international relations of the Harding administration," Congressman Fess, Republican candidate for United States Senator, said in a speech here last night.

Mr. Fess reiterated previous declarations that the League of Nations is again an issue in the 1924 campaign. Referring to the report of General Hubbard that the United States for the mandate of Armenia, would require 200,000 American soldiers there, Mr. Fess said:

"Never by my vote will an American soldier be landed in a foreign country, except when ordered there by the President."

Redfield Claims Lane's Letters Are Full Of Errors

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—William C. Redfield, former Secretary of Commerce, today expressed the opinion that the letters of the late Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, in President Wilson's cabinet, which have just been published in book form, contain instances of half truths which Mr. Lane himself would never have permitted to become public had he himself had the opportunity of editing them. Mr. Redfield was a close friend of Mr. Lane and sat next to him at the cabinet table in war days.

Mr. Redfield said the Lane letters throw a wrong light on President Wilson and do not represent the mature judgment of Mr. Lane. "To my mind," said Mr. Redfield, "it is a grave misfortune to the memory of a good man that these letters should be published—if they are without any qualifying editing, for that they should be printed in scraps so as to convey impressions that their author would perhaps disapprove."

Letters Were Private
"If you were ill," he said, "and in addition, had worries on your mind, it would be unfair to you to expect statements made under such circumstances as representing your actual and well-considered opinion. That was the case with Mr. Lane. And so, he wrote in private letters what he probably never would have written had he had any idea they were to be published without his revision."

Mr. Wilson's attitude toward preparedness was, in my opinion, a medium between two extremes, on one hand positive neglect, and on the other obviously militaristic preparation. There were members of his cabinet who became impatient with him, and Lane through a singular temperament was one of them.

Lane Was Overworked
"I have not read either the book or the letters except so far as extracts from the latter have appeared in the press. My first thought is to recall that Mr. Lane, whom I counted as a dear friend, was a greatly overworked man, and as the sad event proved, a man suffering to some degree from illness. I do not think, therefore, that the reader and spirit of his notes represent the deliberate, mature judgment of the kindly man he was."

"Some of these statements are clearly incomplete and need qualification. I have read former Secretary of the Navy, Daniels', comments and encounter with them."

Mr. Daniels in his comments refuted the interpretation of Mr. Lane concerning the subject of convoys for merchant ships during the war.

WARM FEELING UNDERWEAR THAT INVITES COLDER WEATHER

Careful people don't wait for the severe weather to come; they take no chances for heavy colds and sickness, when there is warmth within, such as these garments give, warmth without is not as necessary. But warmth is only one of the vital factors of comfort. You will want good fit. This means shapely lines and sufficient elasticity at the necessary points. You will want to know that the seams are flat, that there is no binding or pinching. But there is no need for YOU to worry about these things, for we have done that for you. These are the sort that give comfort in every way.

The FLAMING JEWEL

by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS
©1922 GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY

BEGIN HERE TODAY

The savage battle for possession of the flaming jewel rages about the disreputable hunting camp in the Adirondacks where MIKE CLINCH has hoarded the priceless gem as the sole means of giving his beautiful stepdaughter, EVE STRAYER, the "education of a lady."

The jewel was first stolen from the retinue of COUNTESS OF ESTHONIA by the great international thief, QUINTANA. Clinch stole the gem from Quintana. Now Quintana has returned with his gang of cut-throats and will stop at nothing to regain possession of the jewel. For love of the countess, JAMES DARRAGH, under the name of HAL SMITH, also fights for the jewel. Darragh is the nephew of Harrod, the wealthy millionaire, who years ago destroyed Clinch's honest business of guiding hunters.

Eve and her lover,

TROOPER STORMONT, escape from Quintana by swimming Star Lake. Eve carrying what she believes to be the jewels in her mouth. Darragh took what Eve thought was an empty pocket from Quintana and finds the real jewels in a false bottom. Eve, Stormont and Darragh go to the latter's hunting lodge while Mike Clinch continues his battle with Quintana and the robber gang.

Go on With the Story

CHAPTER II
WHEN Stormont gently halted his horse it was dawn, and Eve, sagging against him with one arm around his neck, sat huddled up on her saddle fast asleep. In a birch woods, on the eastern slope of the divide, stood the log camp, dimly visible in the silvery light of the early morning. Darragh, cautioning Stormont with a slight gesture, went forward, mounted the rustic veranda, and knocked at a lighted window. A man, already dressed, came and peered out at him, then hurried to open the door.

"I didn't know you, Captain Darragh," he began, but fell silent under the warning gesture that checked him.

"I'm a guest outside. She's Clinch's stepdaughter, Eve Strayer. She knows me by the name of Hal Smith. Do you understand?" "Yes, sir."

"Cut that out, too. I'm Hal Smith to you, also. State Trooper Stormont is out there with Eve Strayer. He was a comrade of mine in Russia. I'm Hal Smith to him, by mutual agreement. Now do you get me, Ralph?"

"Sure, Hal. Go on; spit it out!"

"You're a hootch runner," said Darragh. "This is your shack. The hatchery is only a blind. That's all you have to know, Ralph. So put that girl into my room and let her sleep till she wakes of her own accord."

"Stormont and I will take two of the guest-bunks in the L. And for heaven's sake make us some coffee when you make your own. But first come out and take the horse."

They went out together. Stormont lifted Eve out of the saddle. She did not wake. Darragh led the way into the log house and along a corridor to his own room.

"Turn down the sheets," whispered Stormont. "Good heavens! When the bed was ready: 'Can you get a bath towel, Jim?'"

Darragh fetched one from the connecting bath-room.

"Wrap it around her wet hair," whispered Stormont. "Good heavens! I wish there were a woman here."

"I wish so too," said Darragh; "she's chilled to the bone. You'll have to wake her. She can't sleep in what she's wearing; it's almost as damp as her hair."

He went to the closet and returned with a man's morning robe, as soft as fleece.

"Somehow or other she's got to get into that," he said.

"Very well," said Stormont, red-nosing. "If you'll slip out I'll manage it." He looked Darragh straight in the eyes: "I have asked her to marry me," he said.

When Stormont came out a great fire of birch logs was blazing in the living room, and Darragh stood there, his elbow on the rough stone mantel-shelf.

Stormont came straight to the fire and set one spurred boot on the fender.

"She's warm and dry and sound asleep," he said. "I'll wake her again if you think she ought to swallow something hot."

DON'T HAVE TO GET UP NIGHTS ANYMORE

Dayton Man Reports Quick Relief From Bladder Trouble That Caused Him to Get Up 15 to 20 Times Nightly.

Mr. John L. Lusk, of Erie, Pa., writes in his own home paper, the Dayton Herald: "For two years I had to get up 15 to 20 times each night. The burning and pain was awful. After taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Kidney and Bladder Remedy, the trouble came, and I was able to sleep. I am glad to have this way of telling my fellow sufferers about this great new remedy."

Chamberlain's Kidney and Bladder Remedy acts on the kidneys and bladder like a charm. It cures all cases of urinary trouble, relieving the bladder of all abnormal deposits. The tablets cost 25 cents. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several expensive drugs which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is likely you have never taken anything similar. Try a few doses for bladder, scalding, scanty or high-colored urine and frequent desire to urinate.

Be sure to get the Chamberlain Kidney and Bladder Remedy from a reliable dealer or write The Kidney Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Pa. Advertisement.

At that moment the fish-culturist came in with a pot of steaming coffee.

"This is my friend, Ralph Wier," said Darragh. "I think you'd better give Eve a cup of coffee." And, to Wier, "Fill a couple of hot water bags, old chap. We don't want any pneumonia in this house."

Then he went into his own quarters to read two letters which, conforming to arrangements made with Mrs. Ray the day he had robbed Emmanuel Sard, were to be sent to Trout Lodge to await his arrival.

Both, written from the Ritz, bore the date of the day before; the first he opened was from the Countess Orloff-Strelwitz:

"Dear Captain Darragh,

"You are so wonderful! Your messenger, with the ten thousand dollars which you say you already have recovered from those miscreants who robbed Rieca, came aboard our ship before we landed. It was a godsend; we were nearly penniless—and oh, so shabby!"

"Instantly, my friend, we shipped, Rieca and I, Fifth Avenue enclaved us. All misery was forgotten in the magic of that paradise for women."

"Furthermore, dear Captain Darragh, we are hastening to follow your instructions. We are leaving today for your chalet in the wonderful forest, of which you told us that never-to-be-forgotten day in Rieca."

"Your agent is politeness, consideration and kindness itself. We have our accommodations. We leave New York at midnight."

"Rieca is so excited that it is difficult for her to restrain her happiness. God knows the child has seen enough unhappiness to quench the gaiety of anybody!"

"Well, all things end. Even tears. Even the Red Terror shall pass from our beloved Russia. For, after all, Monsieur, God still lives."

"Valentine."

"R. S. Rieca has written to you. I have read the letter. I have let it go unopened."

Darragh went to the door of his room:

"Ralph! Ralph!" he called. And, when Wier hurriedly appeared:

"What time does the midnight train from New York get into Five Lakes?"

"A little before nine."

"You can make it in the five, can't you?"

"Yes, if I start now."

"All right. Two ladies. You're to bring them to the house, not here. Mrs. Ray knows about them."

And—get back here as soon as you can."

He closed his door again, sat down on the bed and opened the other letter. His hand shook as he unfolded it. He was so scared and excited that he could scarcely decipher the angular, girlish penmanship:

"Then he went into his own quarters to read two letters which, conforming to arrangements made with Mrs. Ray the day he had robbed Emmanuel Sard, were to be sent to Trout Lodge to await his arrival."

"R. S. Rieca has written to you. I have read the letter. I have let it go unopened."

Darragh went to the door of his room:

"Ralph! Ralph!" he called. And, when Wier hurriedly appeared:

"What time does the midnight train from New York get into Five Lakes?"

"A little before nine."

"You can make it in the five, can't you?"

"Yes, if I start now."

"All right. Two ladies. You're to bring them to the house, not here. Mrs. Ray knows about them."

though it may not pass the censor—that I am most impatient to see you, Monsieur. Not because of kindness past, nor with an unworthy expectation of benefits to come. But because of friendship—the deepest, sincerest of my whole life.

"Is it not modest of a young girl to say this? Yet surely all the world which was one ere, formal, artificial, has been burnt out of our hearts by this so frightful calamity which has overwhelmed the world with fire and blood."

"If ever on earth there was a time when we might venture to express with candor what is hidden within our minds and hearts, it would seem, Monsieur, that the time is now."

"True, I have known you only for one day and one evening. Yet, what happened to the world in that brief space of time—and to us, Monsieur—brought us together as though our meeting were but a blessed reunion after the happy intimacy of many years. . . . I speak, Monsieur, for myself. May I hope that I speak also for you?"

"With a heart too full to thank you, and with expectations indescribable—but with courage, always, for any event—I take my leave of you at the foot of this page. Like death—I trust—my adieu is not the end, but the beginning. It is not farewell; it is a greeting to him whom I most honor in all the world. . . . And would willingly obey if he shall command. And otherwise—all else that in his mind—and heart—he might desire."

"Theodora."

"It was the most beautiful love-letter any man ever received in all the history of love."

And it had passed the censor. (Continued in Our Next Issue)

Governor Morrow Speaks At High School Tonight

Governor Edwin P. Morrow of Kentucky will be the principal orator at what promises to be the biggest rally of the campaign on the Republican side this (Friday) night.

The Chief Executive of the Commonwealth across the river is a splendid speaker, and from all indications the distinguished visitor will be given a hearty greeting here.

The meeting will be held in the High School Auditorium, and Governor Morrow will start his address at eight o'clock. Congressman C. C. Kearns will be the other speaker.

The River City band has been engaged to entertain the crowd with a concert before the speaking starts.

Bureau Plans For Drive

The financial campaign to be conducted by the Bureau of Community Service, will open in a few days, and letters have been sent to subscribers to continue all subscriptions and those assisting in the drive are urged to exert every effort in order that every person will be seen and that those who were missed last year will be visited this year by the solicitors.

The industrial institutions of the city will be visited by special teams chosen expressly for this purpose. The Kiwanis and other clubs and societies will lend assistance in the undertaking.

The executive committee has been busy every night for the past week arranging all details for the campaign. The members of the Bureau feel confident that the public knows the great work which it has done in the past, is doing now, and will continue to do as long as it exists and that the people will not hesitate to fully co-operate in every way that there will not be the slightest difficulty experienced in raising the funds essential for the continuing of its work.

It is expected that the campaign film, "I Never Realized" will be shown here some time next week.

PLAYS WITH DYNAMITE; BOY HURT

GREENUP, Oct. 27.—Paul, the fifteen year old son of George Clark of Short Branch, near here, was seriously injured in the right hand and side Thursday when a dynamite cap with which he was playing, exploded.

The boy's index finger, thumb, and the palm of his right hand were badly mangled by the explosion. He was rushed to Marting hospital, Ironton, this evening by Dr. J. W. Carter.

Andrew Clark Is Fined

Clark was immediately brought before Judge Bertram in the police court, where he was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He pleaded guilty and was fined $17.50 and the costs.

Clark formerly resided at this place, but he now lives at Portsmouth. The spree, for which he was fined, was indulged in Monday, Oct. 16, but he escaped arrest at that time.

Builds Bungalow

Edwin L. Shump has just completed a modern new bungalow at Hillcrest Addition, West Portsmouth.

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism, or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands, or feet. There is no longer the slightest need of this, however, as the new prescription, "Anuric," is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, in ridding the impoverished blood of its poisons by way of the kidneys. It can be obtained at almost any drug store, by simply asking for "Anuric" for kidneys or backache. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold, extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant arising from bed at night.

Send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten-cent trial pkg. or ask your druggist for Dr. Pierce's Anuric (kidney and backache remedy). —Advertisement

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S. S. S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red-Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells! Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells! That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. Blackheaded pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun, but it will only give you more cell-poison in your blood. The tremendous results produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C. of medical science. Red-cells mean clear, pure, rich blood. They mean clear, healthy, lovely complexion. They mean more power, because all your life is fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. A. B. C. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1892, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-purifiers and system strengtheners, from the fact that S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S. S. S. makes you feel like a new man again

Noted Evangelist Here Next Week

Arrangements are being completed for the coming of the noted evangelist, Rev. George Wood Anderson, who will arrive here next week to conduct a series of lectures on the proposed wine and beer amendment.

He will be accompanied here by B. D. Ackley, nationally famous hymn writer, the author of many of the hymns used in Evangelical churches today, and who for eight years traveled with Billy Sunday.

He, with an able assistant, will have charge of the music during the stay of Rev. Anderson. The trio will have its headquarters at the Washington hotel during its stay here.

The great preacher will conduct his services in the Trinity Methodist church, and there will be a lecture each evening at seven o'clock. There will also be talks in the afternoon of each day.

The general committee is composed of Rev. Hugh J. Evans, Rev. W. C. Millikan and Sec. Dudley of the Y. M. C. A. Sub-committees are being appointed.

Tree Planting Day Is Observed

Today was observed by the Women's City Club as Roosevelt Day, trees being planted as memorials to this great outdoor American. The local organization planted sixty three-year-old maple, oak and elm trees along Scio Trail, to carry out the idea of Tree Planting and Tree Care Day. The movement to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Roosevelt by Tree Planting and Tree Care Day was inaugurated by the American Forestry Federation and National Federation of Women's Clubs. The public was urged to take part in the movement today by planting, replanting or caring for some tree which would grow to be a fitting memorial to their work.

There are 175 different pieces in the average watch.

Laying Seven Mile Main

WELLSTON, Oct. 27.—Probably largest crew of workmen ever brought to this city at any one time in its history arrived over the Hocking Valley at six o'clock this morning. There were 215 of them with a number of officials and foremen occupying five passenger coaches and four large baggage cars carried their equipment.

This large crew will begin laying a seven mile main to connect up the Berlin gas field with the trunk lines of the Ohio Fuel Supply Company.

To Build Eight Houses

Inspect Local B. & O. Branch

WELLSTON, O., October 27.—General Superintendent Mitchell and Division Superintendent A. A. Janus, of the B. & O., made an inspection of the Portsmouth branch, going down in their special car last night and returning this morning. Business is very heavy on the branch at this time, caused by the renewal of operations of practically every plant along the line and the large additions to the Whitaker-Glessner plant at Portsmouth.

SECTION MAN HURT IN COLLISION

WELLSTON, Oct. 2.—Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock the Ford car of Cecil Evans, of West Broadway, and a Hocking Valley handcar met in collision at the Murfin crossing west of the city. Frank Barber of South Wellston, a section man, was caught and he received a compound fracture of the left leg. Barber was brought to this city and the injured limb given surgical attention by Dr. J. W. Ogier.

Evans was enroute to the country after a load of apples and not seeing or hearing the approaching car ran head on into it.

FUR SCARFS

Some of the new styles, very wide and very long, are worn like shawls and thrown over the shoulder like a Spanish scarf. Those of mole or ermine are particularly effective this way.

Sheiks in Arabia now wear wrist watches with radium dials.

For the Business Woman

Light housekeeping is made easier for the office woman now that superior potato chips are easily obtained. She appreciates the clean package of wholesome food. A chop, a roll, some coffee and a green salad, with the dainty chips, make an agreeable meal, quickly prepared and properly digested.

Remember the name DERNELL'S. For these Golden Crisp Potato Chips are "greaseless," due to an exclusive process of removing all excess fat, their crisp salty flavor is irresistible. Order DERNELL'S at your grocer's.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Prices exhibited a much firmer tone at the opening of today's stock market, due to active short covering but scattered selling developed several points of weakness. A strong recovery in sterling exchange and higher continental rates was a contributing factor to the upward trend. Good buying support was noted in oil and equipment. Gains of 1 to 2 points were recorded by Mexican Petroleum, Standard Oils of California and New Jersey and Transcontinental Oil. Baldwin and American Locomotives and Pullman all improved a point or more. Other strong spots were Corn Products up 2½, Maxwell Motors A and Iron Products up 1½ each and Studebaker. Dupont and Reading each up one point. Mexican Petroleum preferred and United States Rubber first preferred dropped 2 and 3 points respectively while J. I. Locomotive, Famous Players and American Tobacco all declined a point. Four thousand shares of Anaconda, an unusually large block, sold at 50 or ½ below last night's close.

Prices generally held up well above yesterday's closing levels. When some of the active issues had registered net gains ranging as high as 7 points, a fresh supply of stocks came on the market, representing further short selling and profit taking which was influenced by renewed liquidation of United States government bonds and a higher renewal rate for call money. Trading was rather quiet during the early part of the session but a risk rally took place just before noon under the leadership of Mexican Petroleum which was pushed up 5½ points.

Good buying support also was extended to railroad, steel, motor, public utilities and food shares. Outstanding weak spots were Standard Oil of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Delaware and Hudson. Call money opened at 5½ per cent.

Stock prices made a good recovery from the recent reaction in today's stock market. Hindering effective buying resistance at today's lower level and a smaller amount of stocks pressing for sale, shorts apparently became convinced that the forced liquidation was about finished and prices were bid up in spirited fashion as they listened to cover optimistic reports of conditions in the steel industry as outlined by leaders at the meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute here, and a sharp rise in foreign exchange rates contributed to the more cheerful sentiment. Sales approximated 1,000,000 shares. The closing was strong.

Some 'Come-Down!'

Looking over the municipal report the Columbus Dispatch thus expatiates upon what is one of the cures of the modern system of local government: "Establish a new government department, no matter how small, and watch it grow, and who, when our Juvenile Court system was started in a humble way a few years ago, would have supposed that by now it would have a salary list of $25,000 with expenses running well up to half that sum."

Fatalist by nature the Springfield Sun declares that it was only a question of time anyway until somebody would have killed Ananias for lying about his golf score.

The Wapakoneta News, always the defender of the higher journalism, asserts that the truth of a newspaper's columns these days should not be doubted because it chances to print railway time tables.

Witness Missing; Trial Continued

On account of the absence of Stephen Lewis, an important witness in the case, the trial of Fire Chief Raymond Haselip of New Boston, charged with disorderly conduct, was continued until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock when Lewis is expected to give his testimony. On the stand today John Counts who it was alleged was with Haselip testified that Haselip was not with him and that Lewis was the other fellow in the machine. Haselip denied being out in the machine with Counts the night he was supposed to have stopped and made remarks to Mrs. Stella Potts and Mrs. Gladys Crabtree of New Boston. Haselip on the stand this afternoon claimed he was in a Gallia street confectionery with Counts when he loaned Counts his car. Other witnesses claimed that Haselip and Counts left the confectionery together. Judge T. C. Reilly represents the women in the case while Judge Harry Hall is defending Haselip. Counts recently pleaded guilty to the disorderly conduct charge preferred against him by Mrs. Potts.

"Suicide Of The Soul" Is Discussed At Bigelow Revival

"The Suicide of the Soul" was the theme of the revival sermon by Dr. George Hugh Birney last night, from the text, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation."

The audience at Bigelow listened with utmost attention while the evangelist showed how impossible it is to escape from the laws of sin and death. He described a submarine crew, imprisoned in their sunken ship, with just enough air to last a few hours. "Had you thought," he asked, "that this earth of ours is much like that, and that its people are prisoners who cannot escape? Whether shall we flee? Only a few years at best remain to any of us, and then the air will go out of our lungs and the blood out of our hearts and the asphyxiation which we call death will come upon us. Our only hope is the power of the resurrection in Jesus Christ."

Dr. Birney told how no man can escape from first, himself; second, conscience; third, sin; fourth, death; and fifth, hell. "The greatness of the salvation in Jesus consists in the fact that it saves us from all of these—self, conscience, sin, death and hell. It is as great as the needs of our helpless souls, here and hereafter! It is also as great as the love of God, for it is the measure of that love."

"Calvary represents the minimum cost of redemption. God is not prodigal and if he could have saved man with less than the gift of His Son, He would have done so. The atonement in Christ is as great as the heart of God and the needs of men."

"Sin is suicide, always. It is the Devil's way of getting the soul to deliberately destroy itself by rejecting the only way of escape. And neglect is all that is needful to the end. No soul wants to spend an eternity in hell, but many a soul is willing to gamble on an extension of time. The neglect of salvation is like a drowning man throwing away the rope that will save him. The soul that goes down under the flood of death, neglecting its only escape, is a moral suicide."

"Now is the day of salvation," urged Evangelist Birney. "The Devil's day is tomorrow, and the next. God's day is the present. Today, if ye hear His voice, harden not your hearts. There is no certainty of any tomorrow for us here. Neglect is paring the downward way of many in Portsmouth tonight. Turn ye, turn ye, why will ye die?"

Tonight, Dr. Birney will speak on "In The Gardens of God." An urgent invitation is extended to all. His services here will close with Sunday night.

SOCIETY

Prof. Elmer Ehde, formerly of Bluffton College, and at present organist of the Second Presbyterian church, has been secured by the committee in charge of arrangements to talk at the next meeting of the Woman's City Club Monday afternoon, October 30th, at the home of Mrs. Loren Vost, Harding avenue.

Scotenville. He has chosen for his subject, "What is American Music?" Prof. Ehde has given this talk before numerous City Clubs and presents his theme in a most capable and interesting manner. His talk will be supplemented by selections from our American composer, Mac Dwyer, given by Mrs. John M. Stockham. Another interesting feature of the meeting will be a talk by Mrs. Cornelia Tremblant on the recent convention held in Athens.

The Home League will meet Thursday afternoon, November second, at the home of Mrs. Frank V. Knause, 835 Eighth street, with Mrs. Anna Knause as the assistant hostess. As this is "Better Speech Day" in the club, the following program will be presented:

When Hershell Zornes 19 years old West End young man, charged with participation in the hold up and robbery of Roy A. Bullet, Evansville, Ind., young man, was arraigned in Municipal court Friday, he pleaded not guilty and Judge McCall ordered him held under $500 bond for preliminary examination on November 1. The bond was furnished and the accused was released from custody.

Bullet, who is a stranger here, claims he was lured to the West Side by a quartet of young men Wednesday night in an auto under the pretext of "showing him the sights of the city" and was then assaulted, robbed of his roll of $45 and tossed from the machine.

Following his arrest Zornes is said to have confessed to have been in the party but denied taking any part in the robbery. He is also said to have furnished the officers with the names of his companions.

Mexican Consulate Attacked

WASHINGTON, October 27.—(By the United Press)—The Mexican consulate in New York City today was ordered closed because of an attachment put on its property by New York courts as a result of the claim against the Mexican government by the Oliver American Trading Company, the Mexican embassy announced. The closing of the consulate follows a protest to the state department on Wednesday against the attachment which the Mexican government claim violate international law.

Tragedy Behind Finding Of Body Of Mother And Daughter

MIDDLETOWN, O., Oct. 27.—(By The Associated Press)—Finding of a premature child, wrapped in a newspaper and napkin, beneath the traction trestle, across the Miami river here and on which Mrs. Josephine Beatty, 24, and her three-year-old daughter, Florence, were killed last night by a Cincinnati and Dayton traction, has led police to discard the theory of suicide and substitute one of accidental death. William Beatty, the husband, has accepted the police theory.

The premature child was found this morning while detectives were investigating at the scene of the deaths and after the husband had declared that his wife could have had no motive for taking her life and that of the daughter.

Police now advance the theory that Mrs. Beatty went to the trestle to dispose of the premature child. She left her baby daughter at one end of the

$422,066.96 Raised By Republican National Committee

CHICAGO, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The Republican national committee has raised $422,066.96 for the present campaign and up to the close of business Wednesday night had spent $421,444, leaving $622.96 on hand, Treasurer Fred W. Upham announced today.

His report filed with the clerk of house of representatives shows R. B. Mellon, of Pittsburgh, brother of the secretary of the treasury as the largest individual contributor, giving $25,000.

John D. Rockefeller is second with a gift of $15,000 and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., gave $10,000. Treasurer Upham has not yet made his contribution, but has advanced $25,000 to the national committee to meet a deficit.

Other $10,000 contributors are Wm. Wrigley, Jr. of Chicago; Dr. S. G. Kennedy, of Tulsa, Okla. and the New Jersey State Central Committee through David Baird, treasurer. Mr. Upham's report shows contributions of $100 or more brought in $300,133.16, while donations in sums of less than $100 yielded $23,469.

The $421,444 expended includes $43,022.38 toward principal and interest on loans negotiated during the presidential campaign of 1920. Some of those loans are still unpaid.

The individual contributions include $5,000 from Herbert Hoover, $1,000 from Postmaster General Hurst; $1,000 from former Postmaster Hayes; $1,250 from Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation; $2,500 from Paul M. Warburg; $6,000 from Julius Fleischmann; $1,000 from Vincent Astor; $5,000 from James A. Patten, of the Chicago Board of Trade; $9,000 from Mrs. Julia Carnell, of Dayton; $6,875 from her niece, Mrs. Dorothy Patterson Judah; $6,875 from her nephew, F. B. Patterson, and $1,800 from Robert Patterson, all of Dayton.

he will have a beautiful home erected on it.

New Members
Initiated

Four candidates were initiated and three applicants were favorably handled upon at last night's meeting of Delta Camp Royal Neighbors. The four new members are Eric Thomas, Marie Shelton, Priscilla Buldrige and Nola Hamilton. The three applications received were from Marie Shelton, Sophia Stump and M. Mitchell.

Committees were named to make plans for a quilt sale that will be held in two weeks. Next Thursday night the lodge will hold only a short session as the hall will be rented to the National Protective Legion, who will give a dance and entertainment.

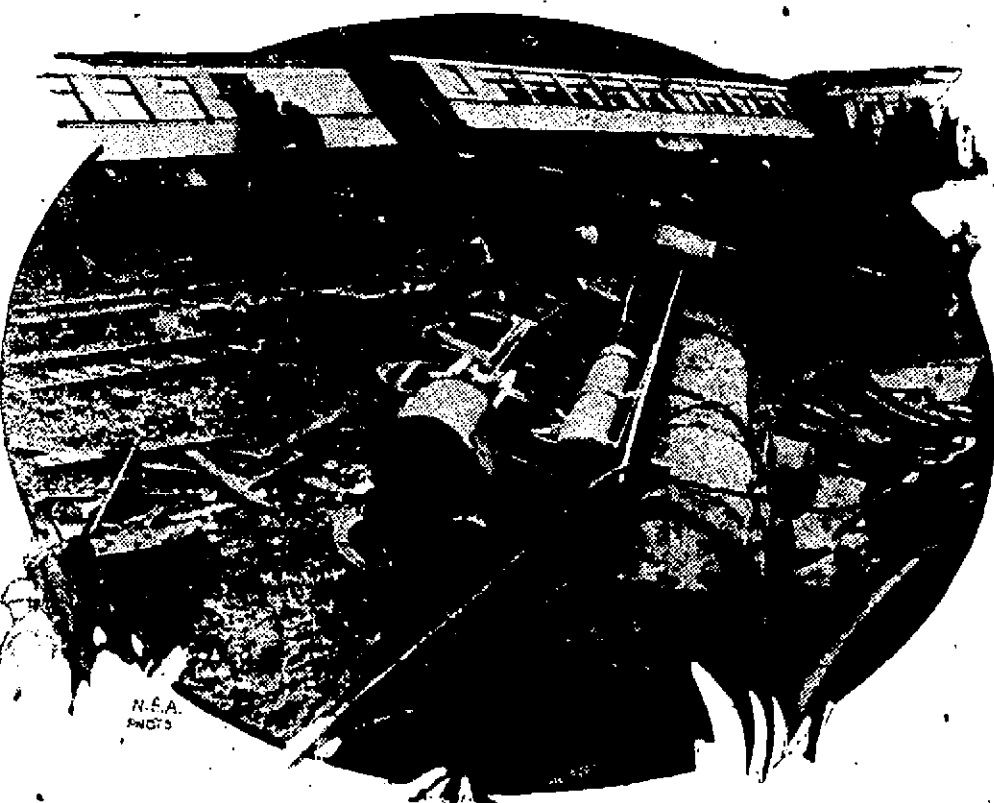

One Feature Worth
Entire Cost of Paper

That seems a strong statement to make, but we confidently believe that the great majority of the subscribers to the Portsmouth Morning Sun will agree that the DR. COPELAND ARTICLES are worth even more than the cost of the Sun per week. Dr. Copeland is one of the leading medical authorities of the country. He writes, every day for the Morning Sun, dealing with some topic of vital interest to the health of everyone. His articles afford a liberal education in health and hygiene. Try the Sun and see if this is not true.

This is but one of the many features in the Morning Sun. For instance some of the best cartoons are to be found every morning in the Sun. Probably the "best line of slang" in the country is used in "Our Boarding House." The Sun is growing. Why not help it along?

Pipe Drops From Auto With This Result

Striking a piece of pipe which had fallen from an auto truck crossing the Baltimore & Ohio railroad tracks, the Palmyra Express was derailed at Sutersville, Pa. The engine left the rails and plunged diagonally across the track into the town's main street, carrying four coaches with it. Telephone poles, fences, walls, trees and other obstacles were smashed as the engine traveled several hundred feet off the tracks. The fireman was killed, the engineer was severely injured and 20 passengers were slightly injured.

WASHINGTON, October 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The Republican senatorial committee in a financial statement filed today with the clerk of the house by Harry S. Wheeler, treasurer, reported campaign contributions of $136,063 and disbursements of $103,693.

There were four contributions of $10,000 each, made by Treasurer Upham on behalf of the Republican national committee: Frederick W. Allen, New York; D. A. Reed, Pittsburgh; and Henry F. Lippitt, of Rhode Island. Seven contributions of $5,000 each were received from William Wrigley, Jr., Chicago; J. A. Hatten, Evanston, Ill.; S. R. Gugenheim, New York; H. L. Doherty, New York; Otto Kahn, New York; Payne Whitney, New York and Samuel Insull, Chicago.

Other contributions included: E. B. Swenson, New York, $4,500; Eugene Meyer, Jr., New York, $2,500; H. S. Wilkinson, New York, $2,000; E. F. Cary, Chicago, $2,000; G. H. Milliken, New York, $2,000; R. P. Lamont, Chicago, $1,700; Elsie Hanson, New York, $1,500 and F. W. Crill, $1,500.

Twenty-seven contributions of $1,000 each are listed.

Gary Proposes Another Peace Conference In Washington To Settle World Economic Troubles

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Another international peace conference in Washington for the full and frank discussion of all unsettled financial, commercial and industrial questions in which the United States is interested, was suggested by Albert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, in a speech today at the semi-annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute, of which he is president. Such conference, he said, should be participated in by all able, open-minded, well-disposed representatives from the different nations, such as those who appeared at the recent limitation of armaments conference.

"If there shall be such a meeting," he declared, "and the delegates are all of the type referred to, there will result incalculable good to all the parties. They would not decide or discuss how to abolish or overcome the old established law of supply and demand, how to avoid or repudiate existing legal obligations, but rather how and when to fulfill them with out irreparable injury to anyone or the sacrifice of principle. While it is true that members of such a conference would be compelled to consider in a large measure the respective constituencies, it is believed that the majority of the population making up such constituencies would be sensible and honest.

"Cancellation of Europe's war debts by the United States was opposed by the speaker. The debts he said were voluntarily, openly and fairly contracted and cannot be cancelled or disposed of on any other basis without doing violence to well recognized principles of justice and rules of propriety.

"To cancel these debts or any part of them without full payment," he asserted, "would be forced charity, and that is never agreeable to the donor, and as a rule, equally disagreeable to a self-respecting person or nation. It is the individual citizen of the different countries who are to be consulted and whose conscience must control.

"Americans generally would not be content with governmental action which relieved from debt the citizens of a foreign nation by increasing the burdens of the former. Likewise foreigners generally would oppose any enforced act of charity. Certainly it would be abhorrent to the business men and women of both countries.

"The attitude and conduct of a nation," he said, "should not be different from that of an individual.

"If your friend is in real need and is honest and trustworthy," he continued, "you will assist him by donation or by loan, or both, but in the latter case, you do not expect him to turn the loan into a gift if and when he is in any way able to pay. If he attempts this your respect for him vanishes. To retain your confidence he must use every effort, up to the limit of his ability and opportunity, to earn and pay.

"In the judgment of many of us, the foreign nations can and are willing to pay their debts, some sooner than others, and most of them sooner than is now generally admitted. We know something of their capacity to work and earn and save and thrive; of their success in business and their means of living. No doubt in many instances productive capacity has been reduced and we share in their suffering on account of deprivation.

"We should be cheerfully willing to extend payment at reasonably low rates of interest. We should be glad to make new loans whenever we are confident they will be paid, and thus assist in restoration and rehabilitation. Every man or nation in order to measure up to obligations must work and save; must be prudent and fair and economical."

Publicity on both sides of industrial disputes or questions involving the welfare of the public was advocated by the speaker.

There are no obstacles to continued prosperity in the iron and steel industry in the United States," the speaker asserted, "except such as may arise from interference with the natural course of supply and demand. Touching on the recent coal and rail strikes he said that if the natural course of business had not been interfered with the iron and steel industry would now be enjoying success and prosperity greater than ever before, so far as volume is concerned. The one to blame, he said, is "one who by word or deed has interrupted or hindered the operation of the natural law of supply and demand, or has interfered with the full, free and unlimited right to work, to operate and to produce."

TWO IMPORTANT TILTS IN OHIO CONFERENCE SATURDAY; OTHER GAMES SCHEDULED

Denison Meets Miami And
'O. W. U. And Wittenberg Clash

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—(By the A. P.)—Ohio conference football teams will have the state all to themselves tomorrow. With Ohio State, hundreds of miles away battling Minnesota at Minneapolis, at least two games—that between Miami and Denison at Dayton, and the Wittenberg-Ohio Wesleyan contest at Delaware—are expected to attract more than ordinary attention and Delaware at least a portion of the central Ohio fans who last Saturday jammed Ohio stadium for the Michigan-Ohio State game.

Incidentally these two contests will be the important ones to be played in Ohio over the week-end, for they apparently will be practically the only ones in which the standing for conference honors is likely to be changed.

The annual Miami-Denison clash at Dayton, which has become a classic for the followers of both schools and for persons in the southwestern part of the state, is expected to give at least a fair indication of how wide a swath Coach Ewing's somewhat green team is likely to cut in conference circles this season. Miami, conqueror of Akron and Ohio Northern, has appeared lacking to some extent in scoring ability, and the Red aggregation from Granville is looked upon as likely to give its opponents a hard battle. Denison has been defeated by both Ohio University and Wittenberg, but poor handling of the ball contributed largely to these losses and the team, although probably out of the conference race, is regarded as likely to finish an upset or two before the end of the season.

Two undefeated teams will meet in the contest at Delaware, Ohio

Wesleyan, showing great improvement over last year, has to its credit victories over Oberlin and Cincinnati and the enviable record of having held Ohio State to five points. Wittenberg lays claim to fame on the basis of its 27 to 20 defeat over Denison a week ago, and goes into the game with knowledge of considerable power, both offensively and defensively. Opinion today was that it will be anybody's game with the team getting the breaks likely to win.

Probably next in point of interest will be the Mutual-Akron set to at Alliance. Both elevens have tasted defeat, but Akron is regarded as having considerable strength and the Mounts after a poor start, have improved considerably in later games.

Clevelanders will watch Cincinnati and Case fight it out at Cleveland, with the Cincinnati team picked as the likely winner. Case has met with successive defeats as has Cincinnati, but those of the latter were decided by eastern teams of considerable strength and by Ohio Wesleyan, while Case fell victim to machines of lesser importance.

Other conference games were scheduled between Wooster and Western Reserve at Wooster, in which Reserve is expected to take another beating and between Ohio Northern and Heidelberg, in which either appears likely to win. Oberlin and Ohio University have open dates.

The remaining conference teams will have particularly non-conference opponents. Kenyon takes on Muskegon at New Concord; Hiram meets Ashland College at Hiram; Baldwin-Wallace will entertain the strong Wilmington team at Berea and Oberlin will play Amherst at Oberlin. Marietta college leaves the state to play Kalamazoo at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Iowa Has Prospered In Football Under Coach Jones

When Iowa played Yale the Jones family was a bit divided in its sentiments.

Yale, you know, is coached by Tad Jones; Iowa by Brother Howard.

Mother Jones hoped the game would end in a tie.

Dad Jones said if anybody must win he hoped it would be Howard.

Three Big Games In West

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The Chicago-Pittsburgh game overshadowed other midwestern football contests tomorrow, but three important games will be played between yesterday conference teams.

Illinois meets Michigan at Ann Arbor, Ohio State plays Minnesota at Minneapolis and Purdue tackles Iowa on the Hawkeyes' field.

Indiana plays the Michigan Aggies while the remaining two teams of the big ten, Northwestern and Wisconsin, remain idle.

State In Fine Trim For Minnesota

Ohio State players are in fine trim for their game with Minnesota Saturday. If State fails to win this game, the chances are that it will not make much of a showing against Iowa, Illinois or Chicago. While the team is given to some extent, there are several seasoned players in Wiley's line-up and it is up to them to steady the youngsters in Saturday's contest. It is a clutch State

EDDIE'S FRIENDS

ALL STAR FOOTBALL CARD SATURDAY

BY HENRY L. FARKELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(United Press)—Under the tents over the national gridiron, the first real big football show of the season will be staged tomorrow.

Feature acts of an all-star card that will keep all the rings busy are:

Yale against the Army.
Navy against Pennsylvania.
Princeton against Chicago.
Georgia Tech against Notre Dame.
Harvard against Dartmouth.
Syracuse against Penn State.
Ohio State against Minnesota.
Michigan against Illinois.

With the exception of the Yale-Harvard game and the Army-Navy battle, the two biggest spectacles of the season will be staged at New Haven and Philadelphia.

The Army team, with all the cadets from West Point, will journey to the Yale bowl to see the soldiers engage the Bull Dog. The Cadet corps will march and do all the picturesque routing that only the service academies are capable of in the east.

While New Haven is being treated to the military spectacle and some football, Philadelphia will be watching the midshipmen from Annapolis go through the same stunts.

This is the first year that the soldiers have been allowed to leave the academy for more than one game.

Princeton goes to Chicago in an attempt to avenge the 9 to 0 defeat the western team handed the Tigers last fall. With only a shell of what used to represent Princeton, the Nassau eleven has a tough proposition on hands.

Because of its inter-sectional appeal, this game perhaps is the biggest feature of the day. If Chicago should win from Princeton, it would add to Iowa's defeat of Yale in making the Western Conference the cock of the 1922 walk.

When the Georgia Tech-Notre Dame game was scheduled for Atlanta last winter it looked like the funniest inter-sectional game of the 1922 season. It is still a good number, but the cyclone that hit Notre Dame when about half of the team went skydiving last fall, robbed the Hoosiers of what promised to be the finest team of this year.

Hoosiers have done well this year with what he had at hand and it should be a fine game.

Dartmouth returns to the Harvard schedule this year after being missing for several years. Dartmouth teams always fight and Harvard teams are always hard to beat.

Penn State, crippled by graduation and "desertion" is not the flashiest team last fall. As long as Hugo Bezdek is coaching, Penn State will have a good team and the game with Syracuse is also of the day's features.

In the Western Conference the big battles of the day will be staged between Ohio State and Minnesota and Michigan and Illinois.

Michigan Boasts Of Two Great Stars

BY BILLY EVANS
KIPKE Michigan has to candidates for the All-American.

No end in recent years has played a greater game than that which Kipke put up against Ohio State.

For three periods Goebel was the mainspring of the Michigan eleven. He seemed to be in every play. It was always Goebel who was gumming up things for State.

Soon could go through an entire game at the speed with which Goebel played the first three quarters. It was beyond the power of any human being. With a few minutes to play in the third period the big fellow practically collapsed.

Even when three or four of his teammates were carrying him off the field the old spirit was still there. He tried to induce his teammates that he was able to play, and tried to break away from their grasp, but the punch was gone and he was forced to give way as the big crowd cheered him to the echo.

First Kids Field Goal
If any one man made possible the defeat of State by Michigan it was Captain Paul Goebel. In the first period he kicked a field goal from the 30 yard line. That goal gave Michigan the needed confidence, it led to a disconnect State.

Only a few minutes before Goebel had made possible the chance to kick again for stifling through the secondary defense, and blocking Workman's punt. The blocking of that punt was the first break of the game.

In the second period, with the ball on State's 30-yard line, a rather poor pass by the State center, which hit Blair on the back because he also started too quickly, caused a fumbled ball. Once again Captain Goebel was the hero. Following the ball closely he recovered it for Michigan. Once again the State's defense had allowed Goebel to filter through.

On the second play after Goebel had recovered the ball Kipke on a delayed double pass ran for Michigan's first touchdown.

It was Goebel all through the game. State seemed to realize his importance in the Michigan lineup because he was forced to take plenty of punishment. No State player handled Goebel with kid gloves. As a result he was often on the ground taking a short count and only failing to come back at the close of the third period.

Kipke showed me that he was easily the best open-field runner that I have seen in years. Behind a strong, experienced line that would give Kipke a chance to get the jump he would be as much talked about as Willie Heston of other days. His fine work in interrupting a forward pass gave Michigan its second touchdown.

Kipke's Punting a Feature
In addition to his fine work on the defense, as well as offense, Kipke gave a remarkable exhibition of punting. Evidently he has been coached in side-line kicking, a feature of play that some coaches are very partial to, and which I have always regarded as good football strategy.

On his first two attempts it was apparent that Kipke was trying to get the full distance of from 35 to 50 yards on his kicks and then have the ball go out of bounds. He failed both times, but soon got his range. During the game any number of his kicks would carry close to 50 yards and then go out of bounds, preventing State from running the back and also saving his team from the grueling kick that is necessary to stop any such attempts.

If Goebel and Kipke can continue the form they exhibited against State throughout the season no All-American team would be complete without their names.

CAPTAIN GOEBEL, HALFBACK KIPKE

Roush Says He Will Sign

This is real news. Eddie Roush, star outfielder of the Reds, says he is going to sign his contract early this season and is going South with his club. All of which means the Reds should be in the National pennant chase for fair next season.

Junior Champion Wildcats Organize

The Junior champion Wildcats baseball team have again organized and are beginning to practice for the opening of the season November 9. CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—(A. P.)—The University of Cincinnati football squad, with Coach George McLaren in charge, left today for Cleveland, where the team meets Case School of Applied Science Saturday. The party consists of twenty-three players, including virtually all members of the first squad.

FIRST HIGHLIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—"Dutch" Reuther, pitcher for the Brooklyn club of the National Baseball League who is visiting here, is probably the first hold-out of the 1923 season. Reuther said he had declined to accept a salary of $10,000 and a bonus of $1,000 which Charles Ebbets, owner of the club, offered Reuther "if he proves he is worth it."

Marty King of the Chicago Nationals, here for the winter, says he will not return to the Cubs next spring.

KILLER AGAIN
TO PILOT CUBS

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—William Killifer, of the Chicago Nationals, was today appointed manager of the Cubs for the seasons of 1923 and 1924 at the annual stockholders' meeting. The re-appointment gives the Cubs the youngest pilot in the majors. Killifer being 34 years old. For the coming season he has a roster of 40 young players from which to select his club.

'Have An Electric Heater Ready For The First Approach Of Jack Frost'

Chilly evenings are coming—to be followed by some chilly days; a "between season" rawness in the air when some artificial heat is absolutely necessary.

An Electric Heater attached to a "convenient outlet" will remove that unpleasant chill from any room and produce in you a cozy, comfortable, glowing feeling. You can without effort, pick up an electric heater and carry it from room to another and change its position to suit your own comfort and convenience.

There's no chill where there's an Electric Heater. Men like this Electric Heater, too. It makes shaving, bathing and dressing more comfortable.

Gallipolis Hi Play Here Saturday

Gallipolis Hi, when they invade the local high school's gridiron, tomorrow afternoon will not find themselves facing a weak team despite injuries suffered by locals in the past few weeks. The injured are now on the mend and, although not in the pink of condition will be ready to enter the fray tomorrow confident they can give a good account of themselves. Fullback Pfau, End Monk and Halfback Ellsesser, who have been classed among the injured, will start in tomorrow's contest against Gallipolis, an eleven that has been sweeping all opponents before it this season.

Masse and Ellsesser will probably play half tomorrow with Pfau at full. Moritz, W. Moore, Shields and Case are ready to slip into a backfield position should it become necessary.

"Dude" Moore will take care of the quarterback position. Callahan will be the center with Monk and Manning on the ends. Phillips and Barklow, the regular tackles, will be in the game with Campbell on one guard with the other guard position to be filled by Munson, Lencave, Flowers, Werper or McNamara.

Ackroyd Is Captain
Of Smokehouse Team

There was a splendid turnout of the Smoke House team last night and the practice session following the election of Sam Ackroyd as captain was far the most spirited ever held this season.

Captain Ackroyd, a veteran of the gridiron, is a man who knows football, and the Scarlet and Gray aggregation is indeed to be congratulated in having him as a leader.

Capt. Ackroyd gave his men a talk in which he urged co-operation and instructed them concerning various new plays that are sure to bring home the bacon. He placed Taylor in charge of the backfield, made several constructive changes in the lineup, and two hours of strenuous and spirited practice ensued. Every man was out last night with the exception of Dewey Adams who is out of the game on account of the three broken ribs which he sustained last Sunday in the melee with the Huntington eleven.

Here's some good news. Harry Pope, stellar tackle, and Watt Hingle, clever half back, both of Yellowtown, have signified their intentions of playing with the local squad for the remainder of the season, and they have been signed up by Manager Russell Haley and are now assured of a regular berth on the aggregation.

Bearcats vs. Tanks

When the Jackson Bearcats swoop down on Tanktown to play the Tanks Sunday they will be accompanied by more than 100 rooters. Jackson has a real team and will make a good showing against the Tanks, who so far have had everything their own way.

Boys Lose; Girls Win

Thursday afternoon a double header basketball game between Beaver and Lucasville High Schools took place upon the latter's court and it proved to be a very interesting combat. The Lucasville boys lost and the girls won.

Lucasville Boys' Team—McCollister, forward; Widdig, forward; Caldwell, center; Brant and Purdy, guards; Frasier, sub. Widdig shot four field goals. McCollister two field goals and one foul.

Beaver Boys' Team—Adams and Davis, forwards; Reisinger, center; Gahan and Pratt, guards. Davis starred for the Beaver team, which won by the score of 21 to 14.

Girls' Team—Jennie Miller and Margaret Bernhold, forwards; Jordan, center; Ruth Appel and Lena Sampson, guards. Bernhold shot one foul and one field goal; Miller one field goal. Ruth Adams, for Beaver, shot the only point made by Beaver High. Score 5 to 1.

Chillicothe Eleven Booked

The classy Sunny Brook Eleven of Chillicothe will be the attraction at Millbrook Park this Sunday when the Ross county aggregation meets the Smoke House gridmen in an encounter which is expected to draw a record breaking crowd. The Sunny Brook team has been defeating all comers this season and has never as yet made the acquaintance of defeat. The game will be called at 2:30 sharp.

Captain Ackroyd has called practice for seven o'clock this evening on the Industrial League gridiron and he wants all men to report at this time, when a number of new plays will be tried.

NEW BOSTON HI AT CATLETTSBURG

New Boston high school eleven journeyed to Catlettsburg this afternoon for a battle with the High school eleven of that village, the game being moved up a day on account of big football battles scheduled to take place in and around Huntington tomorrow.

All the regulars will be in the game with the exception of Halfback Barber Counts, who is nursing a broken finger sustained in the Oak Hill contest. New Boston realizes the chances are against them, for Catlettsburg has a heavy and fast team.

NOTRE DAME VS. GEORGIA TECH

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 27.—Southern football enthusiasts tomorrow will center their interest on the battles between Notre Dame and Georgia Tech in Atlanta and Alabama and Texas in Austin.

Couch Knute Rockne's men were to arrive in Atlanta today and hold a light workout on Grant field. Notre Dame will appear on the field tomorrow in full strength. Tech's "golden Tornado" is reported in excellent condition. The Alabama-Texas conflict is expected to be close. Notre's Colonels, who last Saturday were defeated by Harvard, are slated to have an easy game with Louisville at Danville, Ky., while Vanderbilt, encouraged by its tie with Michigan and victory over Texas, is expected to win over the crippled Mercer team.

Georgia and Oglethorpe are to play in Athens today, the game having been moved up a day in order that both teams might attend the Tech-Notre Dame game.

Portsmouth League

Three close games were played last night by the Bearcats and the Colts, the former taking two of them, but the Colts certainly held things down in the stiff fight they put up.

Blast From Cannonville

FRONTON, Oct. 27.—When the Jackson Bearcats play here Sunday we want them to go back and call on our old friend John Littlejohn, of the Wellston Sentinel, and tell him how they were treated while they were in fronton. John seems to have carried over to Jackson county a supply of venom from Selma county. He should try his system of that Portsmouth poison now that he has departed from the Flood Walters.

Nebraska Eleven

Touted Real Team

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—(By A. P.)—Nebraska University this season has the greatest football team in the history of American football, in the opinion of Steve O'Connor, coach at St. Louis University, who saw the Cornhuskers romp over Missouri University last Saturday to the tune of 48 to 0. "Nebraska is so good it could play Harvard Thursday, Yale Friday and Centre Saturday, win all three games," the local lecturer stated.

After Return Game

FRONTON, Oct. 27.—Just why Huntington wants the "Banks" back in Huntington before they come to fronton is past our understanding. Huntington should come here before another game is played in Huntington, for fronton fans are eager to see the Roosters.

TO DISTURB ANTIQUITY

BIBLICAL scholars, scientists, historians and many other groups will be interested in whatever progress may be made by an expedition which has just left England for the purpose of uncovering portions of the ancient Ur of the Chaldees, ancestral home of the patriarch Abraham. The University Museum of Philadelphia is to share equally with the British Museum in such valuable finds as are made.

According to those who are considered authorities on the subject the work of this expedition is considered the most important and promising archaeological undertaking in a generation. It is considered doubly so by British and American scientists, who point out that, owing to the fact that England has a mandate over Mesopotamia, the expedition will not be called upon to share with the Turks whatever treasure may be uncovered. It will be recalled that the museum at Constantinople is filled with rare relics of antiquity which English and other expeditions have been forced to give up merely because the Turks happened to be in control of the countries where the relics were uncovered.

The site of the Ur is practically unexplored. There has been some little digging there, but no systematic uncovering has ever been attempted. This expedition is literally disturbing the dust of the ages. Years ago an eminent Oxford professor predicted that what is probably the world's earliest library would be found if Ur were ever uncovered. The eyes of scholars and scientists throughout the world will therefore be focused upon the excavations about to be made.

AIDING TURKS' VICTIMS

IT is estimated that one million Greek and Armenian Christians will be forced out of eastern Thrace by the terms of the agreement made by the allies with the Turks. Practically all of these persons will be without means to care for themselves, and if they do not perish it will be on account of the help they receive from charity.

Herbert Hoover has been asked by Greek representatives to seek help from the United States to enable these hundreds of thousands of refugees to subsist until they can become established somewhere. It is said that half a million persons have already sought refuge in Greece, and this number may be doubled before long.

It is impossible for the Greek nation to maintain these expatriated persons, and the problem of caring for them temporarily must be solved by such nations as are able or willing to respond to the appeals for help. The United States has never refused to extend to suffering peoples of any land, and aid may be expected from this nation.

There is good reason to believe that non-Moslems will find existence even more intolerable under the rule of the Turks in Europe, and it is feared that the Turks will enter upon a systematic effort to exterminate any Christians who remain in the territory that is about to be returned to their authority. It is not surprising that Christians are trying to escape from the lands allotted to the Turks.

The half million refugees who are said to be trying to get out of eastern Thrace evidently have little faith in the ability of the allies to give them the protection which is sought for non-Moslem peoples in Turkish territory. If they value their lives they will get out and take chances on establishing themselves in some other land.

It is a sorry spectacle which the world is witnessing in the Near East. The Turk has the dominant hand in that section of the world. The allies have given the Turks even more than they had hoped to receive.

Most of those who oppose all change have theirs.

It develops that American marks and German marks fell together.

The Greeks at least have Constantine on whom to blame their troubles.

As usual, Lloyd George cannot find his pen when he is asked to resign.

Lots of people who cannot pay their rent see to it that the movie theatre man can.

The marriage service for many persons might be changed to "until we change our minds."

Prosperity smiles in France until French politicians begin to think about the country's bills payable.

Even German monarchists are getting tired of Ludendorff's style of propaganda to bring back kaiserism.

Men are alleged to be becoming better customers than women for scented soap, perfumes and toilet waters, but such are hardly he-men.

Although Mahatma Gandhi, Nationalist leader of India, is behind the bars, his son carries on for him. He is standing on the left before his father's cell receiving his advice. On the immediate right is Moti Nehru, the famous leader from Allahabad.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, October 27.—Thoughts while strolling around New York: The quiet of Gramercy Park. Little girls skipping ropes. Flapper fodder. The Player's Club. Old boys starting for a stroll. Very spruce. Trying to preserve the illusions at 50. Sculptors in attic windows. Artifice drenched in sentimentality. There's Owen Johnson, the novelist.

The ancient Brevoort. Last stand of the horse and carriage. Mark Twain's old home. And that little cafe up the side street where he and William Dean Howells lunched. The age of innocence. A woman tries to stop a bus in the middle of the block. The only policeman in Manhattan with whiskers. He must expect a hard winter. An auction sale of Chippendale. I prefer Heppelwhite. Or Grand Rapids. Too many men carrying brief cases since prohibition. Whatever happened to the pogo-stick?

Harry Kemp, the poet. Still goes hatless. A moth-eaten camel advertising a movie show. Table d'hotes drying off like flies. Pigeons gyrating there's a word—in a churchyard. There's a halo of romance to me about a sexton. He seems so detached from the world.

The tawdry flair of Fourteenth street. Hawk-eyed men with olive skins. And straight, grim mouths. Aproned, bare-head women with hair slicked up in a tight knot. Here's where they used to switch horses on the street cars. A soda fountain called The Pyrenees. How poetic.

I took the lady with dimpled knees To quaff a soda at The Pyrenees. Hot doggerel! That's the way to write poetry. Just like that. Stubby florid men loitering about Tammany Hall. That silhouette shop has been here for years. And I've never seen a customer. An old brewery now a cigarette factory. From soaks to smokes. That's bad. I'd better quit.

Cigarettes remind me that a New York paragrapher wonders if all this muss in Turkey is not subtle propaganda for a certain brand of cigarette. He points to the first page prominence of Mustapha Kemal.

One of New York's theatrical producers with a flair for extemporaneous speaking is known to have a press agent who writes his speeches for him to memorize.

Not long ago he addressed a morning picture gathering and in the middle of the speech the press agent who had been dismissed started the gathering by yelling "Author! Author!"

A Broadwayite who is noted for his flashy clothes appeared the other morning at the Lambs in a checkered creation that made those who beheld it dizzy. He wore an orange tie and a cream-colored fuzzy derby. Mark Teuscher looked at him a moment and then inquired: "Where's the tambourine?"

Doc Koko's KOLUM

By Z. Irene Davis

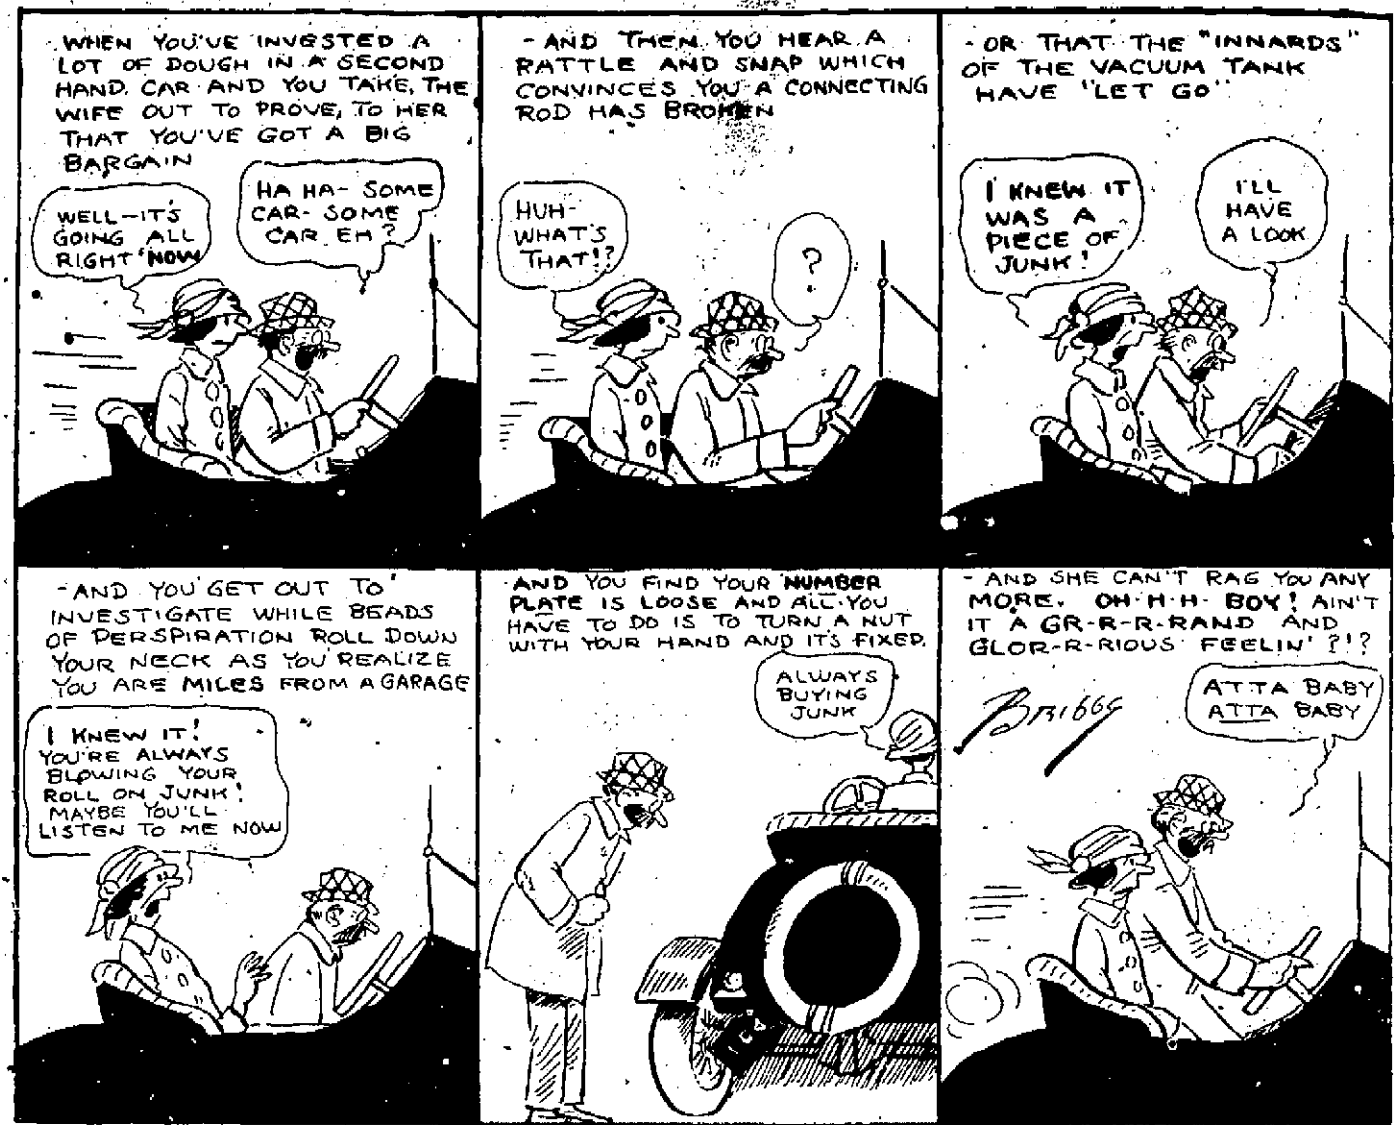

Autumn
O! Ho! for the purple vintage.
And the fruitful orchards, old;
Where a velvet cloth of saffron,
Is spread for the fruits of gold.
Ah, rare is the spicy fragrance,
From the woodlands far away;
And the cow bells' dreamy tinkle,
At the closing of the day.
What wealth in the lore of autumn;
And its songs in the rustic nooks.
Inscribing its stones with sermons,
And its songs in their rustic nooks.
In the globe, the moss is teeming,
With secrets to unfold,
To the heart athrob with feeling,
When the year is growing old.
Back to their hidden cloister,
And every leaf is a poem.
Whose theme is the Saviour's care.
And over all is God's mercy.
With warning, pleading love,
In mystery and blessing,
From peaceful realms above.

Cautious Commendation

The new bank president was being shown about the office and meeting the employees. "In the cashier's cage he questioned in detail one of the assistants about the bank methods and his special work."

"Yes, sir," the assistant admitted with natural pride. "I've been here forty years, and in all that time I've made only one slight mistake."

"Excellent," the new president commented. "I congratulate you on such a record. But a mistake is a mistake; hereafter be more careful."
